Terps Look To Build On NCAA Success

Maryland's unexpected success, which led to a trip to the second round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament and a tie for third place in the ACC, has put the Terps' rise to national prominence on the fast track. In what was supposed to be the second year of the rebuilding process, third year head coach Brenda Frese led an inexperienced Terrapin squad to 18 wins, the most since the 1996-97 campaign, the team's best finish in the conference since that season and its first NCAA Tournament victory in 12 years. Those accomplishments, coupled with the addition of the No. 2 recruiting class in the nation, have given the Terps a renewed sense of confidence and enthusiasm for the upcoming season.

"Going into year three, this is the most excitement and enthusiasm we've had, by far," said Frese. "Every player coming back has been committed to the off-season workouts and I have seen major improvements in all of them. Each of them has dedicated themselves to their game, in the weight room and their conditioning."

Frese continued, "Coming off the heels of the NCAA Tournament, our program has taken a huge step forward. We have the confidence and mentality that we can be competitive and play with the best."

The Terps return seven letterwinners, including three starters, from last season's squad and expectations are high heading into the 2004-05 campaign. Maryland has earned top-15 preseason rankings in a number of publications, and while Frese boasts the most talent since arriving on campus, the Terps are young with eight of the 11 scholarship players being freshmen and sophomores.

"We are extremely young. We're going to shine and have really bright moments where we're clicking. And we're going to have some moments where we're going to show our youth and inexperience. With such high expectations on the shoulders of such a young team, we're going to have to be patient because it's going to take some time as we grow and mature together."

Among the returning letterwinners are sophomores Shay Doron and Kalika France. The duo also represents the top two returning scorers from a year ago – the first time two freshmen led the team in scoring in the history of the program. The two accounted for over 36 percent of the team's scoring, recording team-high points 19 times in 31 games. While Delvona Oliver and occasionally Crystal Washington helped with the scoring load in the paint, the arrivals of freshman Crystal Langhorne, Laura Harper and Jade Perry provide even more offensive threats from the post.

Also returning is the team's most experienced player and one of only two seniors on the squad in Anesia Smith. She earned the starting assignment at point guard last season and assumes the role of the floor general again in 2004-05. Along with Doron and France, Smith's role as a leader will be crucial to the success of the team.

"Anesia's made huge strides, both as a leader and as a player. Coming off of the amount of experience Shay and Kalika had as freshmen and entering their sophomore years, we're expecting those three to provide a lot of leadership for this team," stated Frese.

Frese also looks to veterans Charmaine Carr, C'Vette Henson, Aurelie Noirez, and Angel Ross along with newcomers Ashleigh Newman and Liz Gilchrest to be major components to the success of the Terrapins in 2004-05.

"They're going to provide a lot of depth and spark us with a lot of energy coming off the bench. Every player on this team has a role. This team, by far, has the best chemistry overall among these 12 players. We feel like we have a single goal and purpose in mind. We're thinking like championship teams do."

The Terps have to contend with the losses of four veteran players. Crystal Washington was on of just two players to start every game and led the team in blocks. She broke out for a career season in her final year. Delvona Oliver was an All-ACC performer and was one of three players to average double-digit scoring, while providing an inside presence. Maryland led the ACC in three-point shooting last season, in large part because of Chrissy Fisher, who ranked seventh in the conference in that category, while Alli Spence broke the school record with an impressive 50 percent shooting from long distance. However, the Terrapins are confident they will be able to fill those holes with a much-improved returning core and a talented freshman class.

BREAKDOWN: GUARDS

This group has a good blend of experience, youth and talent. Anesia Smith rededicated herself to improving her play and has emerged as the team's leader as the most veteran member of the squad. Ranked 12th in the ACC last season with 2.90 assists per game, she will be the incumbent at the point guard position but will have to improve upon a 3.0 scoring average.

"Anesia has come back as a tremendous leader. She's going to be the glue of this team and will keep everyone on the same page," remarked Frese. "She's made huge strides, both as a leader and as a player. You can see the commitment she's made to her offensive game, which she needed to do."

Shay Doron and Kalika France made the immediate impact expected when the high school All-Americans arrived on campus last season. Both garnered All-ACC honors with Doron earning third team recognition, the first Terrapin freshman to be named to the all-league squad, while France was an Honorable Mention All-ACC pick. The tandem also led the team in scoring, ranking in the top 12 in the conference in that category. Selected to the ACC All-Freshman team, Doron was eighth in the ACC in scoring at 13.5 points per game, while France's 11.7 ppg were 12th. Looking to build on successful freshmen campaigns, the two are poised to do the same on the offensive end, while an improved post game will help carry the scoring load.

Doron, who tied an NCAA record with 23 free throws in her first-collegiate game and broke the school record for free throws in a season, will also split the point guard duties with Smith.

Anesia Smith

Shay Doron

Kalika France

"We've seen great maturity from Shay, in terms of her leadership. She's thinking, acting and doing all the things a winner does. Shay has put on so much strength in the weight room and has a lot more confidence now."

An all-around threat, France was the team's top rebounder with 6.0 boards per game, 10th in the ACC, and her 1.42 thefts per game were tops on the squad and 14th in the conference.

"Kalika continues to improve her game and take it to the next level, offensively and defensively. She's very focused, driven and is going to be someone who we will challenge to be a great teammate and provide leadership. Kalika brings an air of confidence that's contagious to the rest of the team."

The first Terrapin from the state of Tennessee, Ashleigh Newman is a Miss Basketball Finalist and a two-time Street & Smith's Honorable Mention All-American who will challenge the veteran guards for playing time. A graduate of Shelbyville Central, an established high school program which has captured numerous state titles, she is competing like a veteran and her versatility makes her a valuable asset to the squad.

"Ashleigh's under the radar in terms of that [freshman] class, but she is already playing and competing like she's a collegiate player. She can play numerous positions because she has the intelligence and strength to do so. She's strong, can defend, can shoot the pull-up J and has three-point range."

Joining the team as a walk-on last year, C'Vette Henson has earned a scholarship and will vie for playing time as one of five guards on the squad. She continues to show improvement and has proven she can score, play defense, rebound and dish the ball off the bench.

BREAKDOWN: FORWARDS/CENTERS

With the departures of Delvona Oliver and Crystal Washington due to graduation, the frontcourt is the most inexperienced group on the squad as none of the returning post players averaged more than 13.5 minutes per game last year. A veteran core of Charmaine Carr, Aurelie Noirez and Angel Ross, will be counted on to mentor three highly-talented freshmen in the paint, while making contributions off the bench.

Expectations are high for freshmen Crystal Langhorne, Laura Harper and Jade Perry who will see plenty of playing time. The three come to College Park with an impressive resume. Langhorne and Harper were named McDonald's, Parade and Street & Smith's All-Americans. Both were also selected to the All-USA Basketball Team by USA Today. A two-time New Jersey Player of the Year, Langhorne tallied over 2,700 points during her high school career. Harper played with the USA Junior Women's World Championship Qualifying Team in Puerto Rico, helping the Stars & Stripes to a 5-0 record and a gold medal. A southpaw, Langhorne provides instant offense, and Harper is an extremely hard worker who can score, rebound and defend at the center position. At 6-4, she provides an inside presence and runs the floor well.

Perry is a three-time Honorable Mention Street & Smith's All-American and a Kentucky Miss Basketball finalist in her senior year. In her career at Muhlenberg North High, she amassed 2,792 points, 1,647 rebounds and 512 blocks. A physically powerful player, she is going to be a tough matchup for opponents because of her versatility and ability to play inside or outside.

"These freshmen are playing like veterans and will contribute right away. All four have made huge gains in a short period of time. Crystal is always going find ways to score and rebound. She's relentless on the glass, offensively and defensively, as are Jade and Laura, down low in the post. Like all freshmen, they're going to be up and down. But between the three of them, we're going to have a lot of consistency inside."

Junior Charmaine Carr offers versatility as a swing player. She has made vast improvements in the off-season and has come in with the mentality to contribute in any way she can and should see her off-season workouts pay off.

"Charmaine spent a lot of time on her game over the summer and understands what she needs to do for this team. She will provide a spark for us this year. She's a strong and versatile player and give us the depth we are going to need this year."

Moving to a new country is a big adjustment in itself. However, Aurelie Noirez not only had to adjust to life in the U.S., but also had to conform to life as a college student-athlete and to the collegiate game. Her contributions as a role player were one of the keys to the team's success as she provided depth and rebounding. After having to sit out the first eight games of the season, she saw time in the remainder of the Terps' 23 games, chipping in 2.3 ppg and 2.4 rpg.

"Aurelie has worked extremely hard and is in much better shape. Knowing the system coming in this year, she's going to put herself in the mix immediately because of her work ethic, her skill and her understanding of the game."

Junior Angel Ross saw limited playing time and will continue to compete for action. As one of just three upper classmen, her two years of experience playing in the ACC will be a valuable asset to this young squad.

A late addition is senior walk-on Liz Gilchrest. Joining the squad in the preseason, Gilchrest played three years at Div. III Washington College in Maryland where she was named Honorable Mention All-Centennial Conference after averaging 13.7 ppg and 8.5 rpg. She brings experience in the collegiate ranks and maturity. She will be an example for the young members to look up to because she has proven that you can achieve your goals when you set your mind to it.

SCHEDULE

Maryland faces a challenging schedule in 2004-05 as they could square off with 11 postseason tournament participants, including nine who reached the NCAA Tournament.

"All the games are going to get us prepared for the ACC schedule which is always tough," said Frese. "We have some games that build our chemistry, our rotation and our flow. We have some competitive games against teams that were in the NCAA Tournament. Early on, we're going to see where we're at."

The Terps open the season at Appalachian State on Nov. 19, then come home for the first time on Nov. 21, hosting Siena. The Terrapins face an early test as they are pitted against 2004 Final Four team, LSU, who also ended Maryland's NCAA Tournament run last year in the second round in Baton Rouge, La. Playing at a neutral site when the teams play on Nov. 26 in the Coors Classic in Boulder, Colo., the Terps hope to avenge that postseason loss. In the second game of that tournament, Maryland could play host school Colorado or Penn. Both teams participated in NCAA Tournament action last season.

After a home game vs. Loyola on Nov. 30, the Terps open the month of December on the road at Xavier before returning to Comcast Center for a five-game home stretch which includes games vs. St. Bonaventure, Monmouth, Coppin State and the annual Terrapin Classic, Dec. 29-30. Massachusetts, Elon and Marshall round out the four teams in the home tournament.

The new calendar year marks the beginning of the new conference slate. Two new teams, Miami and Virginia Tech, joined the ACC for the 2004-05 campaign making the road to an ACC title even more challenging. Both teams were ranked among the top 25 for most of last season and both earned NCAA Tournament berths.

The Terps get a taste of the new ACC right away, traveling to Virginia Tech on Jan. 2. The game also marks the first of at least five television appearances for Maryland. The teams close out the regular-season home-and-home series on Feb. 24 when the Hokies visit College Park.

Maryland also battles Georgia Tech, Virginia, and five-time ACC Champion Duke twice. The Terps host the Blue Devils for a nationally televised contest on Feb. 13. Maryland is looking to have the same turnout as last season when 13,446 fans packed Comcast Center, the second-largest crowd in ACC women's basketball history.

The Terrapins host North Carolina on Jan. 9 and NC State on Jan. 23. Both games will be televised, with the game against UNC being broadcast nationally. The Tar Heels and the Wolfpack earned NCAA Tournament berths last year after a tight conference race. NC State and Maryland tied for third in the ACC.

Maryland makes trips to the three southern-most schools in the conference – Florida State on Jan. 16, Clemson on Feb. 6 and Miami on Feb. 17. The Terps eliminated ACC-newcomer Miami from the NCAA Tournament last year in the first round with a one-point decision in Baton Rouge, La., adding to the drama of the game in mid-February.

Frese gives the Terps a break from the league schedule when she takes them to face her alma mater, Arizona, on Jan. 29 for a nationally broadcast contest. It will be another tough game in the midst of conference play, but will help Maryland get through the remainder of the rigorous conference slate.

Maryland closes out the regular season hosting Northern Colorado on Senior Night, Feb. 28.

With the expansion of the league came a new format for the ACC Tournament which takes place March 4-7 at the Greensboro Coliseum. The top five seeds earn a bye for the first round on March 4. After a full day of quarterfinal action on March 5, the four semifinal squads square off on March 6 on Fox Sports Net. The finals will be played on March 7, in a game that will also be televised on FSN.

As if making the NCAA Tournament was not enough, there is added incentive for the Terps to earn a postseason bid. Comcast Center was selected as one of eight predetermined sites for the first and second rounds of the 2005 tournament. Should the Terps have another successful campaign, they could begin their postseason run in front of a hometown crowd on March 20 and 22.

The Terps were not satisfied with their long list of accomplishments a year ago. Instead, they were left hungry for more. The team has been as focused as ever and is reaching for more. With the combination of an improved veteran core and a talented but young group, the Terps look to factor into the national picture and remain in the upper echelon of the ACC.

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

Maryland Basketball Ranked Top 15 in Preseason Poll

On the heels of its second round NCAA Tournament appearance, head coach Brenda Frese's young Terrapins earned a No. 12 ranking in the Athlon Sports College Basketball Annual. Seven letterwinners return from last season's team which surprised the conference with a third-place tying finish in the ACC. Maryland posted the most wins since the 1996-97 season, going 18-13, and doubled its ACC win total from each of the last two season, posting an 8-8 conference record.

Among the letterwinners returning are All-ACC honorees and returning starters Shay Doron and Kalika France. Doron ranked in the top 10 in scoring, en route to third team All-ACC nods, while France was in the top 10 in rebounding and was selected Honorable Mention all-conference. The preseason ranking is also bolstered by the signing of the No. 2 recruiting class in the nation. Frese signed nationally touted recruits Laura Harper (Elkins Park, Pa.), Crystal Langhorne (Willingboro, N.J.), Ashleigh Newman (Shelbyville, Tenn.) and Jade Perry (Central City, Ky.).

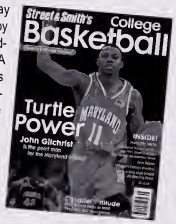
Comcast Center Selected for 2005 NCAA Tournament Site

The NCAA Women's Basketball Committee announced in July 2004 that Comcast Center will play host to the first and second rounds of the 2005 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament. One of eight predetermined sites, eight teams will travel to College Park for first- and second-round action, a change in the tournament format from previous years when 16 sites played host to four squads for the first and second rounds. The College Park First and Second Rounds at Comcast Center take place Sunday and Tuesday, March 20 and 22.

The University of Maryland hosts an NCAA Tournament contest, men's or women's, for the first time ever at the two-year old Comcast Center, which seats 17,950 fans. It is also the first women's basketball tournament game in College Park since the Terps hosted the first round in 1993. In all, seven NCAA Tournament games have been played in College Park.

Doron Earns National Recognition

After a successful freshman campaign, sophomore Shay Doron was selected Honorable Mention All-American by Street & Smith's magazine. In the Terps' unexpected third-place ACC finish and run to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, she led the team in scoring with 13.5 points per game. She became the first-ever Terrapin to earn All-ACC honors as a freshman when she was named to the third team and was also the first Terp since Jessie Hicks in 1993 to be selected first team All-ACC Tournament.



Who's Back

Seven letterwinners return from last year's 18-13 team, including three starters. All-ACC honorees Shay Doron (Great Neck, N.Y.) and Kalika France (Forestville, Md.) led the team in scoring and rebounding, respectively, as freshmen. Senior Anesia Smith (Alexandria, Va.) wraps up her career at Maryland after this season. A starter in every game last season, she returns as the most experienced Terrapin on the squad.

Juniors Charmaine Carr (Accokeek, Md.) and Angel Ross (Midlothian, Va.) also return, adding depth and experience to the post positions. Sophomore Aurelie Noirez (Vandoeuvre, France) saw playing time in every game after having to sitting out the first eight games of the season. She looks to put in a full season in 2004-05. A walk-on last season, sophomore C'Vette Henson (Annapolis, Md.) is another perimeter threat for the Terps.

Fabulous Four

This year's edition of the Maryland Terrapins have come to College Park from seven different states and Europe. Four Terps are from the Free State, the most represented state on the roster. Two players call nearby Virginia home. The roster also features one player from Kentucky, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and France. Freshman Ashleigh Newman is the first player in the program's history from the state of Tennessee.

Terps Welcome No. 2-Ranked Recruiting Class

Donning the Terrapin uniform for the first time this season, freshman Laura Harper (Elkins Park, Pa.), Crystal Langhorne (Willingboro, N.J.), Ashleigh Newman (Shelbyville, Tenn.) and Jade Perry (Central City, Ky.) are the newest additions to the Maryland women's basketball squad. In November, the class was tabbed the second-best in the nation by the Blue Star Report.

A McDonald's and Street & Smith's All-American, Harper helped the USA Basketball Junior World Cup Qualifying team win the gold medal at the tournament in Mayaguez, P.R. Langhorne was selected first team All-American by several publications and was regarded the No. 1 post player in the nation last year. Both Perry and Newman were Miss Basketball finalists for their respective home states. Both were also named Honorable Mention All-Americans by Street & Smith's.

That's Gilchrest with an "E"

Also joining the Terps for the 2004-05 campaign is Liz Gilchrest. Not to be confused with Jon Gilchrist of the Terrapin men's basketball team, Gilchrest (with an "E"), played three seasons at Washington College in Chestertown, Md. Formerly Liz Smith, Gilchrest averaged 14.1 points per game and 6.5 rebounds. In her final season at WC, she was an Honorable Mention All-Centennial Conference honoree after averaging 13.7 points and 8.5 rebounds.

Gilchrest married Allen Gilchrest in August, 2004. She is completing her physics and civil engineering degree at the University of Maryland. Gilchrest hails from Sharpsburg, Md., and is a Boonsboro High graduate where she was a first team All-Monocacy Valley Athletic League twice and an all-area selection once.

Maryland on the Tube

The Terps are slated for at least five television appearances in 2004-05, including two nationally televised broadcasts. Maryland's ACC season opener at Virginia Tech on Jan. 2 is the team's first televised game of the season. The three other TV games are home contests and air on the Regional Sports Network (Comcast SportsNet, Fox Sports Net, Sunshine Network), including the Terps' game vs. Duke on ESPN2 on Feb. 13. Maryland's game at Arizona on Jan. 29 will be a live broadcast on Fox Sports Net and will air on a tape delay basis on Comcast Sports Net at 11 p.m.

Last year, Maryland made nine television appearances overall, four were national broadcasts on ESPN, ESPN2 and Fox Sports.

The New ACC

Highlighting the 2004-05 season is the debut of the new-look Atlantic Coast Conference. The conference welcomes the additions of Miami (Fla.) and Virginia Tech this year, making the ACC arguably one of the toughest women's basketball conferences in the country. Both the Hurricanes and the Hokies were ranked in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches and AP polls during the 2003-04 campaign and both earned NCAA Tournament berths. The Terps eliminated Miami from the NCAA Tournament in the first round in a one-point victory in Baton Rouge, La., 86-85. Maryland and VT will be squaring off for the third-consecutive year after non-conference meetings in each of the last two seasons.

ARIZONA '93

THIRD YEAR AT MARYLAND

SIXTH YEAR OVERALL

Looking to resurrect a struggling women's basketball program, Maryland got what it was looking for when it successfully courted 2002 Associated Press National Coach of the Year Brenda Frese. Frese has not disappointed fans in College Park. Making amazing turnarounds her calling card, she led the Terrapins to an unexpected run to the second round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament and mentoring the team to its first tournament victory in 12 years. Described as dynamic, overachieving, determined and enthusiastic, the 34-year-old coach has compiled an 85-61 (.582) career record in five seasons, while turning programs around at each of her stops.

In what was supposed to be the second year of the rebuilding process, Frese instilled confidence into a Maryland squad that went 4-12 in ACC play in 2002-03 and depended on players with limited experience, including two highly touted high school All-Americans in Shay Doron and Kalika France. In building that confidence, the Terps believed they were better than the preseason eighth-place pick and ran out to a tie for third in the ACC with an 8-8 mark, double the conference win total from each of the last two seasons and their best showing since the 1996-97 campaign. Collecting 18 wins on the season, almost double the previous season's total and the most since 1996-97, Maryland was rewarded with an NCAA Tournament bid, its first since 2000-01, and was the only 12th seed in the tournament to advance when it upset fifth-seeded and future ACC opponent Miami (Fla.), 86-85. At season's end, the Terps received votes in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll.

There was a long list of accomplishments for the Terps by the end of the season. Maryland reached the ACC Tournament semifinals for the first time since 1998 and nearly defeated top-seeded and five-time conference champion Duke. Maryland averaged a 12.3-point margin of victory in its conference wins, sweeping Wake Forest and Clemson, its first sweep of any team in three years. Statistically, the team improved its scoring, 3-point shooting and free throw percentages, ending the year ranked 18th in the nation from behind the 3-point arc. Making nine television appearances on the season, including four national broadcasts, the Terps drew a Comcast Center-record 13,446 fans to the final home game of the season versus the Blue Devils, the second-largest crowd in ACC women's basketball history.

Her first season at the Terps' helm was the rebuilding year it was predicted to be. With a roster short on depth but high on effort, Frese led Maryland to a 10-18 record, narrowly missing wins at several junctures. Frese's Terps also notched several positive steps in her first year including: breaking 100 points in a game for the first time since Dec. 28, 1993, winning their first ACC road game since Feb. 19, 2001, drawing a crowd of 5,078 — the largest at a Maryland women's basketball game to date since Feb. 24, 1996 — and bringing home their first win from Florida State since the 1995-96 campaign.

Frese has not slowed down despite the team's success in 2003-04. She continues to diligently work the recruiting trails. Regarded as one of the top recruiting coaches in the country, she nabbed the second-rated recruiting class in the nation, according to the Blue Star Report, adding more excitement to the New Era of Maryland Women's Basketball. Four of the nation's top recruits signed National Letters of Intent to play with the Terrapins beginning the 2004-05 campaign.

One of college basketball's rising stars, Frese fits with Maryland's legacy of success. At Minnesota, she earned AP National Coach of the Year honors as well as Big Ten Coach of the Year recognition for turning the Gophers' 8-20 program into a 22-8 team and a top 25 contender in 2001-02. One of the biggest one-season turnarounds in NCAA history, Minnesota set a then-school record with 22 wins and tied for second in the Big Ten with an 11-5 conference mark. Frese also took the Gophers to what was only the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance. The Golden Gophers earned a fifth-seed in the NCAA Tournament and defeated UNLV in the first round before being eliminated by three points in the second round by North Carolina.

Frese's revitalization of the Minnesota program rocked the Big Ten establishment, as her team's 10-win improvement in conference play marked the biggest one-year improvement in Big Ten history. Moreover, the 11 Big Ten wins were three more than Minnesota totaled in the previous six seasons combined. The Golden Gophers had also achieved their highest ranking in school history to that point when Minnesota was listed 14th in the Associated Press Top 25 in mid-February and garnered a No. 18 national ranking in the final regular season AP poll. Undoubtedly, Frese had arrived.

Frese started her head coaching career during the 1999-2000 season at Ball State, a program that had gone 66-169 in the nine seasons prior to her arrival. She guided the Cardinals to a 16-13 showing in 2000 and garnered Coach of the Year honors in the Mid-American Conference. Frese led Ball State to a then-school best 19-9 mark in 2000-01, capturing the school's second back-to-back winning seasons in Ball State history. Her final year at Ball State, the 2000-01 team received votes in the AP poll, climbing as high as No. 28 in the country.

Frese's enthusiam has been contagious for the fans of her teams as well, as support increased significantly at both Minnesota and Ball State under her leadership. Buoyed by the best start (9-1) in school history, the Golden Gophers finished the season ranked 19th nationally in home attendance average (4,360), including an average of 8,828 fans during the second half of the campaign when the team moved to Williams Arena from the Sports Pavilion. Frese's Gophers attracted the top four crowds in school history, including a record attendance of 12,142 vs. Michigan State and a crowd of 11,389 vs. Indiana. The 2000-01 Ball State team posted a 10-2 home record and set a single-season home attendance record.

She launched her Division I coaching career in 1994 as an assistant coach at Kent State University, helping the Golden Flashes to records of 20-8 (1994) and 17-10 (1995) during her two years there. The Cedar Rapids, Iowa, native then joined Bill Fennelly's staff at Iowa State as the Cyclones' recruiting coordinator, where she assisted in another impressive turnaround, helping ISU to three NCAA Tournament appearances in four years. All told, the Cyclones posted a composite record of 84-38 with Frese as an assistant, including a 17-10 record in 1995-96 when Iowa State recorded the biggest one-season turnaround in school history. In 1997, the Cyclones made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament, a feat they duplicated in 1998 and 1999 with identical 25-8 records. In 1999, Iowa State was ranked among the nation's Top 25 for the entire season and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

During her stay at Iowa State, her 1998-99 recruiting class was ranked among the nation's top 10, and the Cyclones enjoyed tremendous success at the gate, drawing a record crowd of 12,337 vs. Santa Clara in the first round of an NCAA Tournament game played in Ames, Iowa, and rewriting Iowa State's single-season attendance mark multiple times.

Frese is a 1993 graduate of the University of Arizona, where she was a three-year letterwinner for the Wildcats as a guard. When injuries sidelined her during her senior season, she joined the Pima Community College coaching staff in Tucson, Ariz., as an assistant coach in charge of recruiting and scouting. Aside from her bachelor's degree in communications from Arizona in 1993, she also earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Kent State in 1995.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT BRENDA FRESE

"Coach Frese has a superb record of achievement as a head coach in two different Division I conferences. She is an overachiever ... a dynamic and determined leader as a coach. Over time, she will put our program in a position to compete for the national championship as one of the elite women's basketball programs in the country."

—National Champion Connecticut Head Coach Geno Auriemma

"Brenda is one of the young dynamic coaches in the game. Obviously, with my being an Old Dominion player, I have known of the Maryland program for years and where it has been and what it has achieved. If you give Brenda time, she will make Maryland one of the top teams not only in the ACC, but I think Maryland has the potential to be a Top-10 team for a long time to come."

—Basketball Hall of Famer and ESPN Basketball Analyst Nancy Lieberman

"Brenda is a proven coach. I'm excited about her youth and enthusiasm. I think she's going to do a tremendous job for Maryland. I congratulate her and I look forward to her being able to make the same type of turnaround she made with the Minnesota program."

—Former ESPN Basketball Analyst Vera Jones

"Brenda is definitely one of the brightest young coaches in America. She's a great student of the game. She will be very successful at Maryland."

—Arizona Head Coach Joan Bonvicini

"I think this is a great hire for the University of Maryland. Brenda will do a great job of continuing the great tradition of Maryland basketball. She is outstanding in all areas needed to lead a program to national prominence. She is hard working and extremely organized. She knows what it takes to find players who can succeed at this level."

—Iowa State Head Coach Bill Fennelly

"I think the University of Maryland made a good choice in hiring Brenda. She is obviously an up-and-coming coach and she did a great job at the University of Minnesota while she was there. She worked for me so I feel I know her a little better than some other people. I think she will do a great job there, I think it was a good hire and I think that five years down the road, the University of Maryland will have a very good team on their hands."

—Kent State Head Coach Bob Lindsay

"Brenda brought life to the potential that we all knew this team, program and community had. We thank her for bringing that potential to life and wish her well. I know she'll be a great coach at Maryland."

MARK PEARSON

Director of Basketball Operations
Iowa State '96 • Third Year at Maryland

Head coach Brenda Frese took care of all the details when she built her staff at Minnesota and brought that winning formula, intact, to Maryland, including Director of Basketball Operations Mark Pearson. In his third year, Pearson oversees the general operations of the basketball program, especially the planning of team travel.

"Mark does a tremendous job of overseeing all of our team travel and coordinating our office from top to bottom," said Frese. "Mark does a great job organizing and makes sure everything runs smoothly while also serving as our director of summer camps."

While Pearson was with Frese in Minnesota, he handled team travel, scheduled practices, coordinated camps and assisted with community service. His experience before Minnesota was vast and varied, including knowledge of both the business and the coaching worlds.

Prior to joining the Gophers' athletic department, Pearson spent two years in the sales department of Reuters, Inc., in Ankeny, Iowa. From 1997-99, he was an assistant basketball coach at Iowa Central Community College and was involved in everything from recruiting and scouting, to summer camps, to overseeing student-athletes' academic performances.

He served as a graduate assistant and manager of the Cyclone men's basketball team from 1993-97. During that time, Iowa State made three trips to the NCAA Tournament, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 1997.

Pearson earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Iowa State in 1996 and a master's of education in sports management from Iowa State in 2003.

Pearson and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Laurel, Md. Their son, B.J., celebrated his third birthday on March 1, 2004. The couple's youngest child, Natalie, celebrated her first birthday on July 27, 2004.

2003-04 SEASON

REVIEW

REVIEW NOTEBOOK

TERPS MAKE IMPRESSIVE TURNAROUND

In what was supposed to be another rebuilding season, the Terps impressed everyone and made an unexpected turnaround during the 2003-04 season which culminated in a trip to the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the second round.

Maryland, picked to finish eighth in a preseason media poll after winning just four conference games in each of its last two seasons, finished tied for third in the ACC, posting an 8-8 record, equaling or surpassing its conference win total from nine of the last 10 years. Known for her amazing turnarounds, 2002 AP National Coach of the Year Brenda Frese guided the Terps to an 18-13 record overall, the most wins for the program since the 1996-97 campaign. The Terps also played in the ACC Tournament semifinals for the first time since 1998 and won their first NCAA Tournament game in 12 years.

RECORD CROWD ON HAND FOR FINAL HOME GAME

A Comcast Center record 13,446 fans showed up for the Terps' regular-season home finale when they hosted No. 4/4 Duke on Feb. 22. The women's basketball attendance record at Comcast is also the second-largest ACC women's basketball crowd all-time. Maryland set that record on Feb. 12, 1992, drawing 14,500 fans.

All-Time Top ACC Attendance

1.	14,500	Virginia at Maryland	Cole Field House, College Park, Md.,	Feb. 12, 1992
2.	13,446	Duke at Maryland	Comcast Center, College Park, Md.,	Feb. 22, 2004
3.	11,520	Virginia at NC State	Reynolds Coliseum, Raleigh, N.C.,	Jan. 12, 1991

TERPS RECEIVE VOTES IN NATIONAL POLLS

With its unexpected run to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, Maryland received votes in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. The Terps received national recognition four times in the Associated Press Top 25 during the regular season, garnering a season-high 29 votes for the week beginning Jan. 12, just five spots out of the top 25.

DORON ETCHES NAME INTO RECORD BOOKS

All-ACC performer Shay Doron wasted no time making her way into the record books. In her first-career game in a Terrapin uniform, she tied an NCAA record, netting 23 free throws on Nov. 21, 2003, vs. Coppin State, while also breaking the ACC and school mark. She also set the conference and school records for attempts with 27. By season's end, Doron had rewritten the Maryland free-throw shooting record for a season, sinking 136 foul shots, breaking Kris Kirchner's record of 135 which had stood for 14 years (1979-80). Doron's 176 attempts on the year is the third-most in school history.

Doron also tied the Maryland freshman class record when she dropped 32 points at Wake Forest on Jan. 9, 2004. Deanna Tate set the mark on March 3, 1986 vs. North Carolina.

THREE TERPS EARN CONFERENCE AWARDS

Shay Doron became the first Terrapin in school history to be selected to the All-ACC squad as a freshman, earning a spot on the third team. Doron, who also received a first-team vote, scored a conference season-high tying 32 points in the Terps' win at Wake Forest, the seventh-most in school history.

Classmate Kalika France and senior Delvona Oliver were named Honorable Mention All-ACC. Earning the first conference honor of her career, Oliver also garnered a first-team vote. Doron and France were two of five players named to the ACC All-Freshman team. France was picked conference Rookie of the Week three times, while Doron was selected twice during the course of the season. Both were among the top four rookie scorers in the league, while also ranking in the top five among freshmen in assists and steals, and top six in rebounding.

ACC TOURNEY HONORS

Shay Doron and Delvona Oliver were named to the ACC's All-Tournament team, with Doron earning a spot on the first team while Oliver was selected to the second team. The all-tournament recognitions were the first for Maryland since Deedee Warley was a second-team honoree in 2001. Doron is the first Terp selected to the first team since Jessie Hicks in 1993.

FRANCE, DORON PILE UP ROOKIE OF THE WEEK HONORS

Maryland freshmen sensations Kalika France and Shay Doron combined to earn five ACC Rookie of the Week nods in 2003-04 as they led the Terps to their best conference showing since 1996-97. France was picked Rookie of the Week three times, tying for the second-most selections by a Terrapin. Bonnie Rimkus set the school record with four during the 1990-91 campaign. The five selections for Maryland tied for the most ever for the program in one season.

AMONG NATION'S BEST

The Terps' 36.8 percent team shooting percentage from three-point land ranked 18th in the NCAA. The ACC's leader in that category, no other league squad was among the country's top 30 in three-point shooting.

NOT LIKE THEY PREDICTED

After finishing the 2002-03 season tied for seventh in the ACC, logging just four wins, the '03-'04 Terps were picked to finish in the same spot, ahead of only Wake Forest, in an ACC Preseason Poll conducted by the media. The media could not have been more wrongÉ Maryland surprised everyone, finishing in a tie for third by season's end with an 8-8 record.

GREAT EIGHT!

With its 8-8 regular-season conference record, tying for third in the ACC, Maryland doubled its conference win total from each of the last two seasons, equaling or surpassing the Terps' ACC win totals from nine of the last 10 years. The Terrapins third-place showing is the best since the 1996-97 campaign.

FAB FRESHMEN

Shay Doron and Kalika France came to College Park looking to make an immediate impact on the Maryland program and help coach Brenda Frese return the team back to the national spotlight. The two freshmen did not disappoint, spending most of the season ranked No. 1 and No. 2, respectively, on the team in scoring, with Doron leading the way with 13.5 points per game, followed by France with 11.7. Never, in the history of the program, have two rookies led the team in scoring and only four other times has a freshman led the Terps. Below is a list of players who have led Maryland in scoring as freshmen.

Year	Player	Scoring Avg.
1985-86	Deanna Tate	16.7
1986-87	Edna Campbell	16.1
1994-95	Stephanie Cross	11.5
1998-99	Deedee Warley	13.4
2003-04	Shay Doron	13.5

BROKEN RECORDS

The Terps rewrote virtually every team three-point shooting record in the school record books. Maryland sunk a school-record 156 threes and attempted 409 treys, setting the school mark in each of those categories. The team's 27 three-point attempts in the game vs. Georgetown at the Surf-N-Slam Tournament was also a school record.

Maryland made 10 three-pointers in a game on two separate occasions, just one trey shy of the school record.

BRICK REACHES MILESTONE

When fifth-year senior Vicki Brick stepped on the court in the Jan. 15, 2004, game vs. Georgia Tech, she logged her 100th-career game in a Maryland uniform. Brick, who ended her career playing in 115 games, was with the Terrapin program since the 1999-2000 campaign. Her final two games as a Terp, she played a significant role in the team's upset of fifth-seeded Miami (Fla.) in the first round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

Brick's name can be found in the Maryland record books. Her 225 career steals ranks seventh all-time and 364 career assists is 10th.

HOW LOW CAN YOU GO?

In the 69-55 win over Virginia, the Terps' suffocating defense limited the Cavaliers to just 12 points and 16.7 percent shooting in the first half, claiming a 34-12 edge at the break en route to the dominating win.

HOME SWEET HOME

Maryland posted a 12-3 record at Comcast Center, the most wins on its home court since the 1992-93 season. The only three losses came against teams ranked in the national top 10. The Terps are 374-109 (.774) all-time in College Park, playing games at Ritchie Coliseum, Cole Field House and the two-year old Comcast Center.

900 GAMES

The February 29 game at Clemson marked the 900th game in program history. The Terps have logged 905 games through the end of the 2003-04 season, posting a 571-334 all-time record (.631). Maryland's first-ever game came against Catonsville Community College on February 9, 1971, under the guidance of Dottie McKnight. The Terps won, 49-34, opening a nine-game win streak.

2004 NCAA SECOND ROUND

2003-04 SEASON RECAPS

Game 1

Maryland 79, Coppin State 64

November 21, 2003 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Maryland freshman Shay Doron's free throw shooting helped Maryland pull away from Coppin State in the closing minutes and lead the Terrapins to a season-opening 79-64 victory over the Eagles.

As a team, Maryland was 36-44 (82%) at the free throw line, while Coppin State managed just 10-16. Doron was 23-27 from the stripe, setting Maryland single-game records for makes and attempts, and tying the NCAA record for makes in a game. She was just 1-8 from the field, but finished with a game-high 25 points in her debut. Washington's Shaunda Greene also made 23 free throws against Northern Illinois in 1991.

Maryland (1-0) got out to the early lead, stretching the Terp advantage to 21-11 after Charmaine Carr's jumper with 11:35 to play in the first half. The Eagles (0-1) took advantage of 14 Maryland turnovers and 12 points off the bench from Antoinette Reese to get back into the game, and eventually took the lead at 25-23 on a pair of Monique Lewis free throws. The Terp defense buckled down at the end of the half, limiting the Eagles to just seven points over the final seven minutes.

Coppin State scored 17 points off of Maryland turnovers in the first half.

The Terrapins looked as if they put the game away in the second half after Chrissy Fisher's three-pointer gave them their largest lead of the night at 60-44 with just over 11 minutes left to play. However, the Eagles went on a 16-4 run to close the gap to 64-60 with just under three minutes remaining. Maryland scored 10 of its last 15 points from the free throw line and got a three pointer from Fisher to put the game out of reach.

Carr and Delvona Oliver came off the bench to score double figures for the Terps, with 13 and 10 points, respectively. Kalika France grabbed 10 rebounds, including four offensive, to go along with eight points and three assists. Alli Spence handed out a game-high seven assists and chipped in eight points.

Terrapin Classic

Maryland 90, Sacred Heart 49

November 28, 2003 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Freshman Shay Doron led four double-figure scorers with 22 points and the Maryland women's basketball team limited Sacred Heart to just 14-percent shooting in the second half, as the Terps cruised to a 90-49 victory in the first round of the Terrapin Classic on Friday afternoon at Comcast Center. Maryland has advanced to the championship game in all five years of the tournament's existence.

The game was a close affair for the first eight minutes, with neither team gaining more than a three-point advantage. The lead changed hands three times during those opening minutes before a Doron (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) completed a three-point play, to put the Terps (3-0) ahead by one, 16-15, and never trailed for the rest of the game. Keyed by five points from sophomore Chrissy Fisher (Rumson, N.J./Rumson-Fair Haven), Maryland went ahead, 26-17. The Pioneers (2-1) got within five points, 34-29, with a three pointer from Shannon Quinlivan, but the Terps gradually pushed the lead back up to nine points at 38-29. With the clock winding down and the score at 42-33, senior Crystal Washington (Clinton, Md./Bishop McNamara) put an exclamation point on the half, converting the putback off a missed three-pointer at the buzzer, giving Maryland its largest lead of the half, 44-33.

Maryland took control of the second half from the start, going on a 23-3 run to extend its lead, 67-38, at 12:17. A freshman Kalika France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara) trey at 10:20 put the Terps up by 31 points. The Pioneers scored their last field goal of the game with 6:27 remaining in the game on a Colleen Duggan jumper. Maryland went on a 14-1 tear, for a final margin of 90-49, its largest since an 89-44 win over another Northeast Conference opponent, Wagner, on Nov. 25, 2000, in the first round of the Terrapin Classic.

Four Terps posted double-digit scoring. Doron notched her second 20-point game of the season, while senior Delvona Oliver (Euclid, Ohio/Euclid) netted 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for the first double-double of her career as a Terp. Fisher and Washington each added 13 and 15 points, respectively.

SHU's Nicolle Rubino recorded team highs of 11 points and six rebounds.

COLLEGE PARK, MD. - Sophomore Chrissy Fisher scored 18 points and grabbed a career-high 13 rebounds as the Maryland women's basketball team rolled out to a 97-65 win over intrastate-rival Maryland-Eastern Shore in the championship game of the Terrapin Classic on Saturday afternoon. Recording the first double-double of her career, Fisher was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

After defeating Sacred Heart 90-49 on Friday, the Terps post back-to-back 90-point outings for the first time since 1992, when they defeated Drexel, 121-52, on Dec. 1 and American, 93-54, on Dec. 4. Maryland's 4-0 start to the season is its best since starting 6-0 during the 2000-01 season.

The Fighting Hawks (2-2) were within reach in the opening 10 minutes of the game, coming to within 19-17 with 11:08 left on the clock. Over the next six minutes, Maryland (4-0) put together a 19-4 run to take a commanding 38-22 lead with five minutes to play, and ended the half on an 11-2 tear, pushing its lead over 20 points and a 53-28 halftime advantage. Fisher (Rumson, N.J./Rumson-Fair Haven) needed just 20 minutes to post her first-career double-double, pacing the Terps with 11 points and 11 rebounds.

In the second half, Maryland gradually built up its lead to an insurmountable 30-point advantage by the 12:22 mark, 71-41. UMES' six-point run brought the Hawks to within 24, 71-47, with just under 10 minutes left to play, but the Terps pushed their lead back up 78-48 and never saw it dip below 26 for the rest of the game.

The Terps shot an outstanding 60 percent in the second half and were 54.2 percent from the field for the game, as five different players scored in double digits. Freshman Kalika France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara) had career highs of 17 points and eight rebounds, while junior Anesia Smith (Alexandria, Va./Hayfield) tallied 11 points. All-tournament honorees freshman Shay Doron (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) and senior Crystal Washington (Clinton, Md./Bishop McNamara) scored 15 and 12 points, respectively. Doron also dished out a career-high six assists. Senior Delvona Oliver (Euclid, Ohio/Euclid), who averaged 13 points and 6.5 rebounds, was the fourth Maryland player named All-Terrapin Classic.

The Hawks' Tiffany Winkfield also posted a double-double with 23 points and 13 rebounds, earning all-tournament recognition. Octavia Thompson, who was also named to the Terrapin Classic All-Tournament team, led all scorers with 25 points, which included an 11-for-12 outing from the free throw line.

Game 5
#8/8 Penn State 82, Maryland 65
December 3, 2003 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's basketball team gave No. 8 Penn State a dirt of a scare as the Terps trailed by just two points at the half and seven points with 8:41 left to play. But the Lady Lions pulled away in the final minutes and handed the Terps their first loss of the season, 82-65, on Wednesday night at Comcast Center.

The Lions never trailed in the game, but they could not let their guard down as the Terps fought and were never behind by more than 10 in the first half. After being fouled on a layup, freshman Shay Doron (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) completed a three-point play with 10:29 left in the half, bringing Maryland to within one point, 16-15. Penn State pushed its lead back up to 10 points twice before the end of the half. The Terps, however, went on an 8-0 run, keyed by four points from senior Crystal Washington (Clinton, Md./Bishop McNamara), coming within two points at the break, 35-33.

Penn State opened the second half on a 16-2 run, taking a 51-35 advantage. Junior Tanisha Wright scored eight points during that span to spark the PSU run. But the Terps answered with an 11-2 run of their own, nine of those points coming on three 3-pointers from junior Alli Spence (Lafayette, Colo./Chatfield), cutting the lead to single digits, 53-46. Up by just seven points with 8:41 left to play, the Lady Lions slowly began to pull away. A sophomore Chrissy Fisher (Rumson, N.J./Rumson-Fair Haven) layup but the Maryland deficit to nine points, but an 11-4 PSU run to end the game sealed the win for the Lions.

Spence scored a career-high 22 points, going 5-for-10 from three-point land. She also added a team-high five assists. Doron added 19 points, while Fisher ended the game with 10 all of which came in the second half.

Game 9

Maryland 72, UMBC 38

December 20, 2003 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - All four Maryland freshmen scored in double digits as the women's basketball team shot over 50 percent from the field and cruised to a 72-38 win over UMBC on Saturday afternoon at Comcast Center. Freshman C'Velte Henson netted four three pointers to lead all scorers with a career-high 12 points as every Terrapin on the roster contributed in the win.

Maryland shot 58.3 percent from the field in the first half to take a commanding 36-19 lead over UMBC at the break. With the score tied at two apiece, the Terps went on a 17-3 tear to jump ahead, 19-5, early on. Another 13-2 run on the strength of treys coming from junior Alli Spence (Lafayette, Colo./Chatfield), senior Vicki Brick (Timonium, Md./McDonogh) and Henson (Annapolis, Md./Annapolis) put the Retrievers behind, 32-10, with under seven minutes to play in the first half. Maryland's biggest lead of the half was a 23-point advantage, 36-13, but UMBC scored the final six points of the half to cut into the lead.

The Retrievers could not slow down the Terps as Maryland's hot shooting continued into the second half. Henson tallied nine of her career-high 12 points in the period and classmate Aurelie Noirez (Vandoeuvre, France/Lycee Francois Arago) added eight. UMBC's shooting struggles would not go away, making just five buckets in the final 20 minutes and none in the final eight minutes of playing time.

Maryland's freshmen class scored 42 of the team's points, with freshmen Kalika France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara), Shay Doron (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) and Noirez each netting 10. Junior Anesia Smith (Alexandria, Va./Hayfield) dished out a career-high nine assists to go along with six points.

The Retrievers are winless versus the Maryland in the all-time series, extending their losing streak to seven games. The Terps have also swept the Free State teams this season, going 4-0, improving its all-time record against those teams to 64-8.

Surf-N-Slam Tournament

#3/3 Texas Tech 65, Maryland 53

December 28, 2003 • Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO - Freshman Kalika France's career-high 18 points was not enough as the Maryland women's basketball team fell to No. 3/3 Texas Tech, 65-53, in the first round of the Surf-N-Slam Tournament at Jenny Craig Pavilion on the campus of San Diego University on Sunday night. The Lady Raiders went on an 8-2 run over the final 1:17 to seal the victory.

The Terps drop to 7-3 on the season with all of their losses coming to ranked squads. TTU improved to 12-0 to improve their school record for consecutive wins to start the season.

The Terps limited the Lady Raiders to a season-low 32.8 percent shooting from the field, but TTU was 23-of-25 from the free throw line to aid its winning cause. Maryland shot 37.7 percent, but made just nine trips to the charity stripe, connecting on five.

Texas Tech sophomore forward Jametra Clark scored seven points to key an 11-0 run which turned a 16-12 Maryland lead into a 23-16 TTU first-half advantage. The Terps responded and cut their deficit to 25-21 on a France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara) trey at 2:47. But the Lady Raiders pushed their lead back up to eight points and took a 33-25 lead at the break.

In the second half, freshman Aurelie Noirez (Vandoeuvre, France/Lycee Francois Arago) hit two free throws to bring the Terps to within 37-34 with 13:24 left in the game but it was the closest Maryland would get.

The Terps stayed within reach trimming the Texas Tech lead to four points on two more occasions. The Lady Raiders slowly pulled away, pushing its lead up to 11 with less than four minutes to play, 57-46.

Maryland would not go away, however. Junior Anesia Smith (Alexandria, Va./Hayfield) scored four of the Terps' next six points, bringing the to deficit to single digits, 57-51, with 1:17 remaining in the game, but Texas Tech scored five of its final eight points from the free throw line to ward off the Terps' bid for an upset.

Surf-N-Slam Tournament
Maryland 66, Georgetown 63 (OT)
December 30, 2003 • Jenny Craig Pavilion

SAN DIEGO - The Maryland women's basketball team traveled 3,000 miles to face cross-town rival Georgetown for the first time since 2000 and the Terps came out victorious, winning in overtime, 63-60, in the consolation game of the Surf-N-Slam Tournament in San Diego, Calif., on Tuesday night. The Terps had four players in double-figures, led by ACC Rookie of the Week Kalika France who tallied 14 points.

Maryland (8-4) trailed for most of the first half. A 12-4 run capped by a freshman C'Vette Henson (Annapolis, Md./Annapolis) three-pointer at 4:20 put the Terps ahead 22-19. Georgetown did not allow the Terps to hold on to their lead for long, knotting the score at 26 on a Mary Lisicky trey to close out the half. Sophomore Chrissy Fisher (Rumson, N.J./Rumson-Fair Haven).

Maryland had to overcome 50 percent second-half shooting by Georgetown, but fought back to send the game into overtime. The Hoyas came out firing on all cylinders, making all three of their shots to open the period to take a 35-28 advantage. Again, Maryland was behind but stayed close, never trailing by more than 8 points. Henson hit on another three as the Terps made a late surge and came to within 57-56. Junior Alii Spence (Lafayette, Colo./Chatfield) gave Maryland a one-point lead on the next possession with a jumper, 58-57. A Maryland foul gave the Hoyas the opportunity to take the game, but Bethany LeSueur converted on just one of two free throws to tie the game at the end of regulation.

In the overtime, the Terps took the first lead with senior Delvona Oliver (Euclid, Ohio/Euclid) sinking a layup. The Hoyas responded to take the lead, 61-60. Maryland, however, went on to outscore Georgetown, 6-2, down the stretch, including a driving layup by Spence to seal the win for the Terps.

Maryland outrebounded the Hoyas, 47-35, led by France who had nine boards. Oliver ended the game with 13 points and seven rebounds and Henson sunk four three-pointers to tie her career high with 12 points. Spence rounded out the double-digit scorers, netting 10. France also had a career-high six assists.

Lisicky had 17 points in the loss for Georgetown and Carmen Bruce added 16.

The Terps have never lost to the Hoyas, winning all eight meetings. Maryland's three losses this season have been to ranked squads.

Maryland (9-3, 1-0 ACC) led early on, 8-4, but NC State (8-6, 0-1 ACC) scored six-straight points to go ahead, 10-8. Senior Delvona Oliver (Euclid, Ohio/Euclid) remained perfect on the season from the free throw line, completing a three-point play, giving the lead back to the Terps, 11-10. The Wolfpack regained the advantage, 15-13, on an Ashley Key 3-pointer, but Oliver was quick to respond with a trey of her own and Maryland led, 16-15, with 8:16 left in the first half.

The Terps never trailed for the rest of the game but NC State was close behind, tying the game at 22 with 4:01 remaining in the half. With the shot clock winding down and the Terps ahead, 28-26, junior Alii Spence (Lafayette, Colo./Chatfield) netted a three, giving Maryland a five-point cushion at the break, 31-26.

Back-to-back France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara) layups capped a 7-2 Maryland run to open the second half, 39-28. But NC State would not go away, coming to within 40-35 at 12:51. Maryland regained control, however, going on a 10-0 run keyed by a long-range three by sophomore Chrissy Fisher (Rumson, N.J./Rumson-Fair Haven) to jump ahead, 50-35. A jumper in the lane from freshman Aurelie Noirez (Vandoeuvre, France/Lycee Francois Arago) pushed the Terp's advantage to 52-36, its biggest lead of the contest.

The Wolfpack clawed its way back, thanks to a 14-3 run over five minutes, 55-50. But Maryland, who is the best free-throw shooting team in the ACC, was 10-for-10 from the charity stripe and pulled away for the win.

Maryland hit the boards tonight, outrebounding NC State, 51-37. The Terps had 23 offensive boards, compared to the Pack's 14.

Oliver finished the game with 14 points and Spence added 11. Washington (Clinton, Md./Bishop McNamara) also had a career-high tying three blocks.

A second-team All-ACC pick last year, Kaayla Chones was the only player in double figures for NC State, missing a double-double with 13 points and nine boards.

The 12-point margin of victory is the Terps' biggest over an ACC squad since a 62-50 triumph over Florida State in January 2002. The Terps also win their ACC opener for the first time in three years.

Game 13
Maryland 69, Virginia 55
January 4, 2004 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's basketball team used a stifling defense and rebounding to top ACC rival Virginia, 69-55, in ACC action on Sunday afternoon at Comcast Center. The Terps limited the Cavaliers to 12 first-half points and led by as many as 28 points to claim the win and move to 2-0 in ACC play for the first time since the 1993-94 season.

Maryland (10-3, 2-0 ACC) had four players score in double figures with senior Delvona Oliver (Euclid, Ohio/Euclid) and freshman Shay Doron (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) leading the way with 14 points and nine rebounds each. Senior Crystal Washington (Clinton, Md./Bishop McNamara) and junior Alii Spence (Lafayette, Colo./Chatfield) both added 12 points.

The Terps dominated the first half, limiting the Cavaliers to just one basket in the first nine minutes of the game and eight percent shooting. Meanwhile, offensively, Maryland opened the game with a steal and a junior Anesia Smith (Alexandria, Va./Hayfield) fast break layup to jump start a 12-2 run. A fast break layup from Doron capped the run, forcing UVA (5-7, 0-2 ACC) to take a time out.

The Wahoos came out of the timeout on a 6-0 run to cut the lead to 14-8 over the next one and a half minutes, but the Terps came right back and closed out the period on a 20-4 tear to take a commanding 34-12 lead at the break. Virginia had just five buckets in the first half, shooting 16.7 percent from the field. The Terps shot 45.5 percent, led by Oliver who had 10 points at the end of the half on 5-for-6 shooting.

The second half began with Maryland scoring six-straight points, pushing its lead to 40-12, its biggest margin of the afternoon. UVA's Brandi Teamer scored 12 of her 14 points in the second half, including a three-pointer just before the final buzzer sounded, but it was not enough as the Terps easily came away with the win.

Maryland dominated the Cavaliers on the boards, as well, grabbing 37 defensive boards and outrebounding Virginia, 53-34, for the game. No other UVA player besides Teamer had more than eight points.

The win snaps a six-game Maryland losing streak to the Cavaliers. It is also the Terps' largest margin of victory since a 75-54 win over NC State on Feb. 25, 2001.

Game 14

Maryland 75, Wake Forest 58

January 9, 2004 • Joel Coliseum

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Freshman Shay Doron sparked Maryland's offense in the second half scoring 23 of her career-high 32 points to lead the women's basketball team to a 75-58 victory over Wake Forest on Friday morning in Joel Coliseum. Doron's 32-point effort was the most ever scored by a Maryland freshman and is the seventh-highest point total in school history.

The Terps (11-3, 3-0) blew open a the game in the second-half after the teams were deadlocked at 28 at the break. The Terps, who improve to 3-0 in the ACC for the first time since the 1991-92 season, outscored the Deacs, 47-30, after halftime. The 47 points were the most points surrendered by Wake Forest (8-7, 1-3 ACC) in any half this season.

Doron (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) finished the game 9-for-17 from the field, 3-for-7 from 3-point land and 11-of-12 from the free-throw line. Fellow freshman Kalika France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara) was the only other Maryland player in double figures. France scored 15 points, grabbed eight rebounds and dished out three assists.

Maryland scored the game's first four points and pushed its lead to as many as five points in the first-half, 16-11, with 8:38 left. The Deacs answered with a 12-2 run over the next 3:51, capped off by a layup from Liz Strunk to give the Demon Deacons a 23-18 lead. The forward scored eight of her 14 first-half points over the span.

The Terps quickly responded with a 10-1 run of its own. Maryland regained a four-point lead with 1:00 left in the first-half, but the Deacs scored the final four points of the half as the teams entered the halftime lockerroom tied, 28-28.

The Deacs and Terrapins each struggled from the field in the opening 20 minutes. Maryland connected on only 12-for-31 (38.7%) from the field, while Wake Forest went 10-for-30 (33.3%) from the floor. The teams also combined to knock down just a single 3-point field goal on 11 attempts.

The second half saw both teams shoot above 50 percent with the Terps hitting on 56 percent of their shots. After Maryland took the lead on a Doron free throw, 31-30, it never trailed again, converting on nine of 10 free throw attempts to pull away.

The Deac's Liz Strunk scored a career-high 23 points, going 8-for-13 from the field, including a 3-pointer, and 6-of-7 from the free-throw line. Strunk established a new single game career-high for the third time this season.

Cotelia Bond-Young was the lone other Deacon in double figures. Bond-Young, coming off her career-high 27 point effort against NC State last Monday night, scored 14 points and dished out four assists.

Game 15

Florida State 82, Maryland 77

January 12, 2004 • Tallahassee Civic Center

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Led by Tasheika Allen's 25 points and Shante Williams 20 points and nine assists, the Florida State handed Maryland its first ACC loss with an 82-77 victory over the Terrapins, at the Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center. FSU improved to 9-6 overall and evened its league mark at 2-2 while the Terps fell to 11-4 overall and 3-1 in ACC play.

The first half was nonstop action from the tip off. Allen was unstoppable in the first couple of minutes. With the score tied at 4-4, Allen launched and made a three-pointer as she scored FSU's next eight points including six straight to give the Tribe a 10-4 lead at the 16:07 mark. Then it was Maryland's turn. The Terps went on a 12-2 run and regained the lead at 27-25 with 6:07 left. The next five minutes of the half saw four ties and two lead changes. FSU's Holly Johnson hit two free throw shots after a Maryland technical foul, giving the Seminoles a 40-33 lead with 23 seconds and that was the halftime score. Maryland shot 32 percent and had three players with six points apiece.

Maryland scored the first seven points of the second half to tie the game at 40-40, but the Seminoles refused to let the Terrapins regain the lead. Leading 59-56 at the 10:57 mark, the Seminoles scored seven unanswered points, five of which were from the free throw line, to take its largest lead of the game at 10 points, 66-56, with 8:34 left in the game. But it was a game of spurts and Maryland was not about to back down. France went to work for the Terps and scored six of Maryland's next 11 points. The Terps' 11-2 run pulled Maryland to within a point at 68-67 with just under five minutes remaining. Williams then scored eight of FSU's next 10 points as the Seminoles outscored the Terrapins 10-4 and led 78-71 with 27 seconds on the clock. Maryland hit back-to-back three-pointers in the final 21 seconds but the Seminoles hit four free throws to seal the victory.

Florida State shot 55 percent for the game while Maryland shot just 39 percent. Rebounds were knotted at 35-35. France ended the game with a career-high 26 points to lead all scorers.

Game 16

Maryland 91, Georgia Tech 87

January 15, 2004 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's basketball team used a balanced attack and solid free throw shooting to top Georgia Tech in ACC action on Thursday night, 91-87, at Comcast Center. With the win, the Terps improved to 12-4, 4-1 in the ACC, equaling their conference win total from a season ago. The Jackets dropped to 10-6, 1-3 in ACC play.

Five Terps scored in double figures, as sophomore Chrissy Fisher led the team with 17 points. Freshmen Kalika France and Shay Doron chipped in 16 and 15 points, respectively, while senior Delvona Oliver (15 points) and junior Alli Spence (14 points) were in double figures as well.

"It's nice to see us keep our composure down the wire. We got a lot of contributions from a lot of players on the offensive end, and we stepped up and made our free throws," said Maryland head coach Brenda Frese. "I thought Georgia Tech did a tremendous job and really hurt us on the defensive end; they were very aggressive off the dribble penetration."

Maryland jumped ahead 5-1 early on and stayed in front until a Megan Harpring lay up at 12:18, which gave Georgia Tech a 12-11 lead. Although the Terps lost the lead briefly, they quickly reclaimed it on a Doron jumper, 15-14.

The Jackets tied the score twice at 19 and then again at 21, but the Terrapins went on a 21-5 tear to pull away. With just under four minutes left in the half, Fisher drained a three-pointer to give Maryland its biggest lead of the contest, 42-26. Keyed by seven points from Fallon Stokes, Georgia Tech chipped away in the remaining minutes, but the Terps knocked down a couple of jumpers down the stretch and took a nine-point lead into the locker room at halftime, 46-37.

The Terps battled to keep its lead, pushing it up to 13 at 54-41 with 15:15 remaining in the game. But Georgia Tech eventually cut into the Maryland advantage and was down by five points, 68-63, on back-to-back April Johnson layups with just under eight minutes left. After the Yellow Jackets came to within 78-72, from there, Fisher and Spence kept the Terrapins composed by hitting free throws down the stretch.

"I have to give a lot of credit to Maryland. That is a much improved Maryland team," said Georgia Tech head coach MaChelle Joseph. "In my three years in the league, that's the best Maryland team I've seen... I think [Maryland] has two of the best guards [in Kalika France and Shay Doron]- not just freshmen guards- but two of the best guards in the ACC."

Senior Crystal Washington had a game-high eight rebounds and added eight points. Five Yellow Jackets also reached double-digit scoring as the team shot 46.7 percent from the field. The Terps shot at a 49.2 percent clip, including a 45.5 percent outing from behind the three-point line.

The 91 points scored by the Terps is their most in an ACC game since defeating Georgia Tech, 92-79, on Feb. 21, 1999.

Maryland fifth-year senior Vicki Bnck also played in her 100th-career game tonight.

#13/13 North Carolina 72, Maryland 59

January 19, 2004 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Camille Little had 14 points and 15 rebounds, and No. 13 North Carolina had four other players score in double figures Monday night in a 72-59 victory over Maryland.

La'Tangela Atkinson scored 13 points and Nikita Bell had 12 for the Tar Heels, who moved past Maryland into second place in the Atlantic Coast Conference behind Duke. North Carolina (14-2, 4-1) has won six straight and 12 of 13 against Maryland (12-5, 4-2).

Little, who leads the Tar Heels in scoring, made only four of 13 field goal attempts. But the freshman forward had nine points and 10 rebounds in the second half, helping North Carolina pull away.

Delvona Oliver led the Terrapins with 19 points and freshman Kalika France had 11. Maryland committed 20 turnovers and couldn't match up on the boards against the taller, more athletic Tar Heels.

The Terrapins opened the second half with three straight baskets to get within a point and prompt North Carolina coach Sylvia Hatchell to call a timeout.

The Tar Heels then worked the ball inside and turned up the defense during a 13-0 run that made it 50-37 with 12 minutes left. Atkinson led the surge with a putback and two free throws, and Ivory Latta capped the run with a 3-pointer.

It was 50-42 before Bell scored in the lane, Kenya McBee made a three-point play and Leah Metcalf made two free throws for a 15-point cushion.

Candace Sutton, Bell and Atkinson each scored eight points, and the Tar Heels capitalized on 13 Maryland turnovers in taking a 38-30 halftime lead.

North Carolina trailed 13-8 before Latta sank a 3-pointer to spark a 10-0 run. The Terrapins answered with seven straight points, but Atkinson had three baskets in another 10-0 spree that put the Tar Heels up 28-20.

#1/1 Duke 78, Maryland 48

January 22, 2004 • Cameron Indoor Stadium

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - Duke forward Iciss Tillis had gone six games without reaching double figures, but broke out with a vengeance with 21 points as top-ranked Duke defeated Maryland 78-48 Thursday night for its 49th straight victory over an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent.

Tillis' average had dipped from 18 points a game to 11.4, and she had averaged just 5.7 against six opponents before Thursday's win for the Blue Devils (15-1, 6-0).

Alana Beard, leading the ACC in scoring with 19.7 points a game, had nine in just 21 minutes for Duke. She strained a groin muscle in practice Tuesday.

Monique Currie added 12 points and Lindsey Harding 10 for the Blue Devils.

Freshman Shay Doron scored 17 points to lead Maryland (12-6, 4-3).

Tillis scored 13 first-half points and Currie 10 as Duke took a 44-28 lead at the break.

Maryland made seven of its first 14 shots and led 19-18 after Aurelie Noirez hit a backdoor layup with 10:35 left in the first half. But the Terrapins missed their next five shots and nine of 10 as Duke reeled off an 11-3 run.

Duke scored the last nine points of the first half and the first seven of the second.

Doron had 14 points in the first half, but took just one shot after the break.

Tillis made five of her first eight shots and finished 7-for-12 from the field.

The Blue Devils made 31 of 67 shots (46.3 percent) and outrebounded Maryland 46-30. They held the Terps to 16-for-53 shooting (30.2 percent).

NC State 61, Maryland 45

January 25, 2004 • Reynolds Coliseum

RALEIGH, N.C. - NC State women's basketball picked up its second-straight Atlantic Coast Conference victory with a 61-45 win over visiting Maryland. The Wolfpack improved to 10-10 overall and 2-5 in the ACC, while the Terrapins dropped to 12-7 and 4-4 in the ACC. NC State's Alvine Mendeng led a trio of double figure scorers with her 14 points and 11 rebounds. Delvona Oliver, who recorded a game-high 17 points, led Maryland.

The first saw poor shooting from both sides, neither team managed to put the ball in the basket. NC State was held to just 26 percent, while Maryland shot a bit better and posted just over 33 percent. NC State however showcased excellent ball control and defense as it forced Maryland to 11 first half turnovers, while finishing with just six on its end. The Terps held the lead for the first six minutes before NC State pulled ahead at with 12:28 to go in the first. Oliver led Maryland with 12 of her 17 points and kept the Terrapins close heading into the break. NC State led 24-23, due in part to the rebounding performance by Mendeng, who grabbed seven. In addition, senior Nanna Rivers had eight points as she went 3-of-4 from the floor, which included an early three-pointer

The second half seemed to be teetering towards Maryland's favor, as it jumped out to a four-point lead after five minutes. Crystal Washington helped the Terrapins along by tallying five straight-points, but it was all NC State from that point on. Mendeng hit a baseline jumper to put the Pack up for good with just over 12 minutes remaining. She went on to score eight points in the half. She, along with freshman Sasha Reaves took care of the post duties. Reaves went 4-of-6 for the game. The perimeter play of the Wolfpack was sustained by the rebounding and penetration abilities of freshman Marquetta Dickens and junior Kendra Bell. Dickens nearly finished with a double double as well with her 13 points and nine boards. Bell added a career-high eight rebounds and nine points.

NC State went on to shoot 48 percent in the second half and held Maryland again to just 33 percent. NC State outrebounded Maryland 41-37 for the game.

2004 NCAA SECOND ROUND

Game 20

Maryland 68, Clemson 55

January 29, 2004 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Led by freshman Shay Doron's 22 points, the Maryland women's basketball team picked up its fifth ACC win of the season, surpassing its conference win total from the last two seasons, surging past Clemson, 68-55, on Thursday night at Comcast Center. The win also snaps a three-game Maryland losing skid while stopping a Tigers' four-game win streak.

After trailing 42-41 late in the second half, Doron scored 14 of her points over the next nine minutes, sparking a 25-9 Terrapin (13-7, 5-4 ACC) run which gave Maryland a commanding 66-51 lead with just 1:13 remaining in the game. Doron hit on her only three three-point attempts of the game during that span, igniting the Maryland offense. Senior Delvona Oliver and junior Alli Spence contributed six and five points in the streak, respectively, helping Maryland put the Tigers (13-7, 5-4 ACC) away

Maryland held a four-point edge, 30-26, at the break, but Clemson scored the first two buckets of the period to tie the game with 18:25 left to play. The Terps pushed its lead back up to three points, but back-to-back Khaili Sanders' baskets put Maryland behind for the first time in the game, 34-33. The lead changed hands four more times in the next five minutes before the Terps took the lead for good with 10:22 left on the clock, using the dominating run to decide the game.

In the first half, the Terps never trailed, jumping out to an 11-4 lead early on for their biggest lead of the period. A 7-0 run, capped by Amanda White free throws, tied the score at 11 with 13:13 left in the half. The score was tied again at 13-13 before the Maryland defense forced back-to-back turnovers which resulted in a couple of scores to cap a 6-0 run, 19-13.

Maryland equaled its biggest margin of the half at 22-15 with nine minutes left, but Clemson continued to respond with a run of its own to reel the Terps back within reach, tying the game again at 24-24. Spence gave the Terps another boost before the end of the half, knocking down back-to-back threes, putting Maryland ahead, 30-24. Julie Aderhold's layup brought the Tigers to within 30-26, but they could not get any closer, trailing by that margin at the break.

The Terps, who are 13-0 when outrebounding an opponent, had three players with seven rebounds to lead the team. Doron had seven boards to go along with her standout shooting performance. She also matched a career-high with six assists and four steals, while shooting 7-for-13 from the field. Oliver also had seven boards and finished with 14 points. Freshman Kalika France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara) recorded her 13th game of the season with at least five rebounds, tying for the team lead with seven.

Spence added 11 points to the Terps' win, including a 3-for-5 effort from behind the three-point arc.

Maryland snapped a four-game losing streak to Clemson and now leads the series, 30-23. The five ACC wins equals or surpasses the Terps' conference win total from five of the last nine years.

Game 21

Virginia 64, Maryland 51

February 5, 2004 • University Hall

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - Sophomore Chrissy Fisher scored 13 points and had five rebounds, but the University of Maryland women's basketball team fell at Virginia Thursday night, 64-51. The Terps are now 13-8, 5-5 in the ACC, while Virginia improved its record to 11-10 overall, 5-5 in the conference.

Also in double figures for Maryland were freshmen Shay Doron (10 points) and Kalika France (12 points, five rebounds). Crystal Washington hauled down seven rebounds while scoring six points.

The Terrapins jumped out to 8-0 lead, but the Cavaliers would crawl their way back to tie the game at 10 with 11 minutes remaining in the first half. From there, Maryland would again extend a lead, and a basket by Kalika France with 31 seconds left in the half gave the Terps a 24-17 lead.

The second half began with a 5-0 Maryland run, but Virginia would use a run of its own, capped off by a LaTonya Blue layup, to take a 38-36 lead midway through the half. Maryland responded with a jumper by France to tie the game, but it would be as close as Brenda Frese's squad would get as Virginia pulled away late in the game.

Virginia guard Anna Prillaman led the Cavaliers with 11 points, while LaTonya Blue and Safiya Grant-Farley each chipped in 10 points.

Game 22

Maryland 73, Wake Forest 56

February 9, 2004 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The Maryland women's basketball team (14-8, 6-5 ACC) won a key ACC match up Monday night, defeating Wake Forest, 73-56, in front of over 2,600 fans at Comcast Center. Senior Delvona Oliver came up big for the Terps, scoring 20 points, while sophomore Chrissy Fisher connected on three three-pointers and finished with 15 points. Maryland will now look to extend its win streak Thursday night when it hosts Florida State.

Maryland now stands alone in third place in the ACC, behind only No. 2 Duke and No. 12 North Carolina. Fisher (Rumson, N.J./Rumson-Fair Haven), with her three treys, moved into fifth place all-time in Maryland's career annals with 69. The Terps pick up their 11th win at Comcast Center, the most on a home court since the 1996-97 season

Oliver (Euclid, Ohio/Euclid) was an outstanding 9-for-13 from the field and had five rebounds, a block and a steal in addition to her 20-point performance. Fisher and freshman Shay Doron (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) were the other Terrapins in double figures, scoring 15 and 11 points, respectively. The duo also led the team in rebounds, grabbing eight.

Maryland scored the first seven points of the game before Porsche' Jones' basket at 16:34 put Wake Forest (10-12, 3-8ACC) on the scoreboard for the first time. Leading 17-10, Maryland went on a 12-4 tear, taking a 29-14 advantage. However, the Deacons responded with a 16-6 run of their own to pull to within four points at halftime, as Maryland took a 35-31 lead into the locker room.

Maryland never trailed the game and gradually pulled away in the second half behind excellent three-point shooting. A 22-6 run, capped off by a three-pointer from Fisher, gave the Terrapins a 23-point advantage and their largest lead of the game, 70-47, with 4:27 left to play in the game. The best three-point shooting team in the ACC, the Terps shot over 40 percent from behind the arc for the game.

Terp freshman Kalika France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara) also helped out offensively, contributing nine points, five rebounds and two steals.

Maryland's defense kept each of the Demon Deacon scorers under 10 points, and limited WFU to 32 percent from the field. The Terps also dominated the boards, outrebounding Wake Forest by a 48-39 margin.

Jones led Wake Forest with nine points, while Erin Ferrell had eight points and five rebounds.

Game 23

Maryland 76, Florida State 67

February 12, 2004 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Sophomore Chrissy Fisher made five free throws in the final 29 seconds, sealing the Maryland women's basketball team's 76-67 victory over ACC foe Florida State on Thursday night at Comcast Center. Fisher ended the evening with 15 points and was one rebound shy of a double-double, hauling down nine.

Maryland improved to 15-8 overall and 7-5 in the ACC. With one more win, the Terps clinch a .500 record in conference play for the first time since the 2000-01 season. They currently stand alone in third place in the ACC, a game ahead of NC State who is 6-6 in conference play after defeating Clemson Thursday night, 76-55. The Seminoles drop to 12-11 and 5-7 in conference action.

As it had against Wake Forest on Monday night, Maryland jumped out to a big lead early on, using a 16-4 run to go ahead 25-11. Freshman Kalika France (Forestville, Md./Bishop McNamara) scored nine of her team-high 16 points during that span. But FSU charged back with a 17-6 run of their own, including scoring the final six points of the half, trailing just 34-31 at the break.

The Seminoles scored the first two points of the second half on free throws from Lauren Bradley, coming to within 34-33. The Terps briefly lost the lead after pushing the advantage back up to a five-point margin as Florida State's Shante Williams assisted on the ensuing two baskets then swished a jumper putting her team ahead for the first time, 39-38. With 15:00 left in the game, Maryland regained the lead on freshman Shay Doron's (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) layup. Doron went on to tally 10 of her team-high 16 points, tying with France, over the next eight minutes.

Clinging to a one-point lead at 54-53 with 5:22 left to play in the game, the Terps outscored FSU 12-2 over the next three and a half minutes, stretching their lead to 66-55. Florida State would not go away, however, using fouls to get to within 69-66 with 34 seconds remaining. Fisher's 5-for-6 shooting from the charity stripe and two free throws from France iced the win in the final 29 ticks.

France also added seven rebounds to her 16 points. Senior Crystal Washington (Clinton, Md./Bishop McNamara) posted the fourth double-double of her career and of the season, netting 12 points and grabbing a career-high tying 11 rebounds. Senior Delvona Oliver (Euclid, Ohio/Euclid) was a bucket away from a double-double, notching eight points and 10 boards.

Led by the dominating performances of Washington and Oliver, the Terps outrebounded FSU, 48-36. Maryland is 14-0 when outrebounding its opponent.

Bradley paced the Seminole attack, recording a double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds. Williams added 15, while Taskeika Allen had 14 points.

Game 24

Georgia Tech 58, Maryland 57

February 15, 2004 • Alexander Coliseum

ATLANTA - Crystal Washington and Kalika France scored 13 points each, but the University of Maryland women's basketball team was edged by Georgia Tech, 58-57, Sunday afternoon in Atlanta. The Terps fell to 15-9, 7-6 in the ACC, while the Yellow Jackets improved their record to 13-11, 4-8 in the conference.

France ended up one rebound shy of a double-double, grabbing nine to go with her 13 points. Four Terrapins were in double figures, as Chnssy Fisher and Delvona Oliver each chipped in 10 points.

Maryland led by as many as seven points early in the first half, gaining a 12-5 advantage at the 12:40 mark on a layup by Washington. The Jackets fought back to tie the game at 19 at the seven-minute mark, and ended the half by going on a 12-4 run to take a 31-23 lead into the locker room.

Maryland erased the eight-point deficit early in the second half and tied the game at 34 on a layup by France with just over 14 minutes to go. The Terps then used strong rebounding and second-chance points to take a 53-47 lead at the five-minute mark.

A three-pointer by Megan Isom and a jumper by Fallon Stokes got Georgia Tech to within one, but Maryland's Oliver countered with a jump shot to maintain Maryland's three-point lead. From there, two more jumpers from Stokes and two clutch free throws from Alex Stewart put the Jackets up by three, and although Oliver connected on a layup with time expiring, the Terps fell just shy of the victory, losing 58-57.

Maryland outrebounded Georgia Tech, 46-39. France led the way with her nine boards, while Washington and Oliver grabbed seven apiece.

#16/15 North Carolina 79, Maryland 64

February 19, 2004 • Carmichael Auditorium

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Delvona Oliver had 14 points and six rebounds, but the University of Maryland women's basketball team dropped an ACC road game to No. 16 North Carolina Thursday night, 79-64. The Terps dropped to 15-10, 7-7 in the ACC, while North Carolina improved to 19-5 overall and 9-4 in the conference.

Oliver led her team with 14 points and Vicki Brick came off the bench to add 11. Freshman Kalika France had seven rebounds to lead a team effort that saw the Terrapins beat UNC, the top rebounding team in the ACC, 47-39 on the boards.

Maryland led by three, 28-25, with 2:35 remaining in the first half, but the Tar Heels tied the score on a three-point play by senior Camie Davis and took the lead as Little and Bell hit two free throws each. With UNC up by three, Latta hit a three-pointer with a second on the clock to give her team a 35-29 advantage at the break.

The Tar Heels held the lead throughout the second half, increasing it to as many as 20 with 7:33 to play. After hitting just 35.7 percent of its shots in the first half, Carolina was 50.0 percent from the field in the second half.

Maryland shot 32.4 percent for the game and committed 20 turnovers to 15 by UNC. "Carolina did a tremendous job," said Maryland coach Brenda Frese. "They gave us a lot of different problems in every aspect of the game. I'm proud of our team that we hung in there and never gave up."

Game 26

#4/4 Duke 72, Maryland 59

February 22, 2004 • Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Alana Beard led Duke with 24 points and 10 rebounds and the Blue Devils clinched its fourth straight Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season title, defeating Maryland 72-59.

Monique Currie scored 14 points, Mistie Bass added 12 and Lindsey Harding had seven assists and 10 rebounds for the Blue Devils (22-3, 13-1), who have won five straight. Duke beat Maryland for the eighth straight time and 11th in 12 games.

It was not easy, though.

Maryland used a sagging man-to-man defense and a zone that pushed the ball to the perimeter, forcing Duke into low-percentage outside shots. The Blue Devils made 41.7 percent (28-of-67) from the field, but coach Gail Goestenkors wanted to see more shots go down.

"We've been shooting it well and we had confidence in our shot," Goestenkors said. "Today they just weren't falling."

Beard missed nine of 16 shots from the field and three of four 3-point attempts, but Maryland could not slow her down.

"How does anyone stop her?" Terrapins coach Brenda Frese said of Beard. "She does so many things. She obviously hurt us on the glass."

The Terrapins (15-11, 7-8) got 16 points from Delvona Oliver. Kalika France scored 13 of her 15 points in the second half.

The crowd of 13,446 at Comcast Center was the second-largest in ACC women's basketball history.

Beard scored 12 first-half points and Duke used a 15-0 run midway through the half to take a 38-21 lead at the break. Maryland missed its first five shots from the field and finished the opening half 8-for-28.

Oliver had six points in a 14-7 run that trimmed Duke's lead to 53-41 with 11:45 remaining. France scored nine straight points to get Maryland to 57-50 with 7:36 left.

But Currie hit consecutive field goals for an 11-point lead.

Chrissy Fisher made a 3 get Maryland to 66-59 with 2:16 left, but Vicki Kraphol responded with a 3.

"In the first half, I don't think they played their game," Beard said. "In the second half, they came out and played an awesome game."

Game 27

Maryland 80, Clemson 69

February 29, 2004 • Littlejohn Coliseum

CLEMSON, S.C. - Maryland freshman Kalika France netted seven free throws in the final two minutes and had 21 for the game as Maryland clinched the fourth seed in the ACC Tournament with an 80-69 victory at Clemson. The Terps even their conference record to 8-8, tying or surpassing their ACC win total from nine of the last 10 years.

France also had nine rebounds and six assists in 37 minutes. She made a career-high 11-13 free throws in the game, many down the stretch when Clemson had reduced an 18-point margin to seven. Freshman Shay Doron added 13 points, all in the second half. Senior Delvona Oliver made her first five shots of the game, including 2-for-2 from behind the arc for 12 first-half points. She ended the game with 14 points.

Clemson shot 45 percent from the game, better than the 42.6 percent by Maryland. The two teams were tied in terms of rebounding at 40-40. But, Maryland made 8-23 three-point attempts, while Clemson made just 3-10. The Terps entered the game as the top three-point shooting team in the ACC.

Free throw shooting and turnovers were also trouble areas for Clemson, who lost to Maryland for the second time this year. Clemson entered the game as the ACC's top free throw shooting team, but made just 16-31 on Sunday, 51.6 percent. Clemson committed 18 turnovers and forced just 11, as Maryland had 20 assists on 23 made field goals. Maryland entered the game leading the ACC in most turnovers committed per game, but had the +7 margin on Sunday.

Clemson jumped out to a 20-13 lead in the first 7:33 of the game as the Lady Tigers made 6 of their first 12 shots from the field and forced Maryland into four early turnovers.

Maryland then turned a seven-point deficit into an eight-point lead with 4:40 left in the first half. The Terps never trailed thereafter. The 19-4 run was keyed by the play of Oliver, who scored seven points during the run. Maryland led 39-29 at halftime.

Maryland increased its margin to 18 points at 63-45 with seven minutes remaining. But Stokes started to score on drives to the basket. She scored 11-straight points for the Lady Tigers at one point and cut the margin to seven points at 69-62 with 1:45 left. A three-point goal by Whitehurst with 50 seconds left cut the lead to seven again at 74-67, but Clemson could not get any closer. France made 7-8 free throws inside the last two minutes to preserve the victory for Maryland.

ACC Tournament

Maryland 62, Florida State 47

March 6, 2004 • Greensboro Coliseum

GREENSBORO, N.C. - Shay Doron scored 16 points to lead the University of Maryland women's basketball team over Florida State in the opening round of the ACC Tournament, 62-47, Saturday night at the Greensboro Coliseum. The Terrapins advance to the tournament semifinal face top-seeded Duke.

Doron, a third-team All-ACC selection, led the Terrapins (17-11) to their first ACC Tournament quarterfinal victory since 1998. Doron grabbed four rebounds to go with her 16 points, while senior Crystal Washington posted her fifth double-double of the season with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Doron gave Maryland its first lead of the game at the 16:45 mark, draining a jumper from the free throw line to put the Terps up, 5-4. From there, the Terrapins never trailed again, as they scored the game's next 11 points.

The Terps continued to pull away, as two free throws from senior Delvona Oliver, who finished with 12 points and eight rebounds, at 2:51 gave Maryland its largest lead of the first half, 30-15. A three-pointer by Tasheika Allen and a jumper by Lauren Bradley gave Florida State (14-14) a late first-half spurt, but Maryland took a 33-22 advantage into the locker room at halftime.

Maryland, which outrebounded Florida State, 51-36, continued to dominate in the second half, stretching its lead to 20, 46-26, on a junior Anesia Smith lay up at the 10-minute mark, before Florida State went on a 14-4 run to cut the lead to 10 with just over four minutes to play. Smith also had a game-high nine assists, tying a career best.

Head coach Brenda Frese's squad would regroup, however, and answered with a 10-2 spurt to stretch the lead back to 18 with 1:09 left to play. Doron, who was 7-9 from the free throw line, scored five points from the charity stripe to seal the victory for Maryland.

Florida State's Lauren Bradley was the only Seminole in double digits with 10 points, as Maryland limited Tasheika Allen, a second-team All-ACC performer, to seven points on 3-of-14 shooting.

ACC Semifinal
#3/2 Duke 70, Maryland 63
March 7, 2004 • Greensboro Coliseum

GREENSBORO, N.C. - In front of a nationally televised audience, the Terps dropped a heartbreaking loss to top-seeded Duke, 70-63, in the semifinal of the ACC Tournament in Greensboro Colesium. Maryland led by as many as eight points in the second half and was ahead, 48-41, with 11:10 remaining in the game, but could not pull off the upset at the Blue Devils rallied to win the game.

Doron scored 19 points for the fourth-seeded Terrapins (17-12) ans senior Delvona Oliver added 15 points and eight rebounds.

Maryland trailed 7-0 to open the game, but Doron scored the Terps' first five points of the game and a jumper from freshman Aurelie Norrez brought the UM to within 9-7.

The Terps never trailed by more than seven points in the half. A close game throughout, Maryland came to within a couple of points on several occassions before finally taking the lead on an Oliver jumper with 53 seconds remaining in the period, 29-27. Duke trailed at the half for only the fifth time all season.

Oliver made three free throws and Maryland used a 12-1 run early in the second half to take a 41-33 lead. The Terrapins also led 48-41 on a jumper in the lane from Doron with 11:07 remaining.

But the Blue Devils' tournament experience soon came through. Trailing by three, Duke scored on nine straight possessions - many on drives to the basket - to take the lead.

The Blue Devils went ahead to stay when Beard found Mistie Bass inside on a pick-and-roll for a 54-53 lead at the 5:40 mark.

Duke also went 6-for-6 from the line during its run.

In the final six minutes, the Terrapins, who were making their first semifinal appearance in six years, missed two key free throws after a 12-for-12 start.

The Terps outrebounded the Blue Devils, 38-37. It is only the third time this season UM has lost a game in which it outrebounded its opponent.

BATON ROUGE, La. - Delvona Oliver and Crystal Washington each scored 22 points to help 12th-seeded Maryland upset fifth-seeded Miami 86-85 in the first round of the NCAA West Regional. The Terps advance to the second round for the first time in 12 years.

Miami, which beat Maryland by 31 points last year, appeared to be on the way to another easy victory, leading 32-23 with 5:50 to go in the first half when Chanivia Broussard injured her right knee in a pileup under the basket. She watched the rest of the half as Maryland (18-12) took a 38-37 lead into halftime.

Broussard played the second half wearing a knee brace and led Miami (22-7) with 22 points and 11 rebounds. Shaquana Wilkins had 17 points and 10 rebounds, Yalonda McCormick scored 16 points, Tamara James had 15 and Melissa Knight added 14.

Shay Doron scored 19 for Maryland and Kalika France added 16. Chrissy Fisher grabbed 10 rebounds.

The Terrapins outshot Miami 58 percent to 50 percent from the field - 63 to 56 percent in the second half. The Hurricanes outrebounded Maryland 35-30.

Miami's only lead in the second half was a 52-50 edge with 13:29 left.

Both teams had problems at the foul line. Miami made only 13 of 22 free throws and Maryland 18-of-29, but 5-of-7 in the final 50 seconds to offset three Miami baskets.

James hit a 3-pointer to tie the score at 79 with 1:29 left in the game. Oliver put the Terps back in front 81-79 with a layup.

Maryland was up 86-83 with 10 seconds left. Wilkins drove to the basket and made a 2-pointer as time ran out to leave Miami a point short.

Second Round
#19/19 LSU 76, Maryland 61
March 21, 2004 • Maravich Center

BATON ROUGE, La. - Seimone Augustus scored 26 points to help rally LSU to a 76-61 victory Tuesday night over Maryland in the second round of the NCAA West tournament.

The victory sends LSU (25-7) to the West Regional semifinal game in Seattle on Saturday. It also ended Maryland's best postseason run since 1992.

Doneeka Hodges scored 15 points for LSU, Temeka Johnson had 12 points and 12 assists, Wendlyn Jones had 10 points and Tillie Willis had 10 points and 11 rebounds.

Maryland was led by Shay Doron with 23 points, including 11 of 12 free throws. Delvona Oliver added 15 points.

No. 12 seed Maryland looked as if it might pull off its second upset of the tournament. The Terrapins upset fifth-seeded Miami in the first round and held a 28-27 halftime lead against fourth-seeded LSU.

Maryland owned the paint in the first half, using a tight zone LSU struggled against. The Tigers scored 44 points in the paint against Austin Peay in the first-round game. They had just six in the first half against the Terrapins and finished with 28.

Maryland staked out the area under the basket with Oliver (6-foot-3), Aurelie Norrez (6-2), Crystal Washington (6-2) and Chrissy Fisher (6-0) to good effect. The Terrapins outrebounded LSU 37-31.

LSU started penetrating the Maryland zone in the second half and outscored the Terps 27-16 to take a 54-44 lead with 8:05 remaining.

The tenacious Terrapins cut the Tigers' lead to 60-55 on a pair of free throws by Doron with 5:27 remaining. But a 16-6 run down the stretch sealed the victory for LSU.

LSU advanced to the round of 16 for the eighth time, the fourth since 1999.

LSU ran off a 10-2 lead to start the game. The Terrapins came back with a 14-4 run, with a 3-point basket by Doron with 8:12 remaining to tie it at 16.

The Tigers went 5:44 without a field goal and Maryland pulled ahead 22-18. Doron's basket with 53 seconds remaining gave the Terps a 28-24 lead. Then Hodges tossed in a 3-pointer with one second remaining to cut the Maryland lead to 28-27 at halftime.

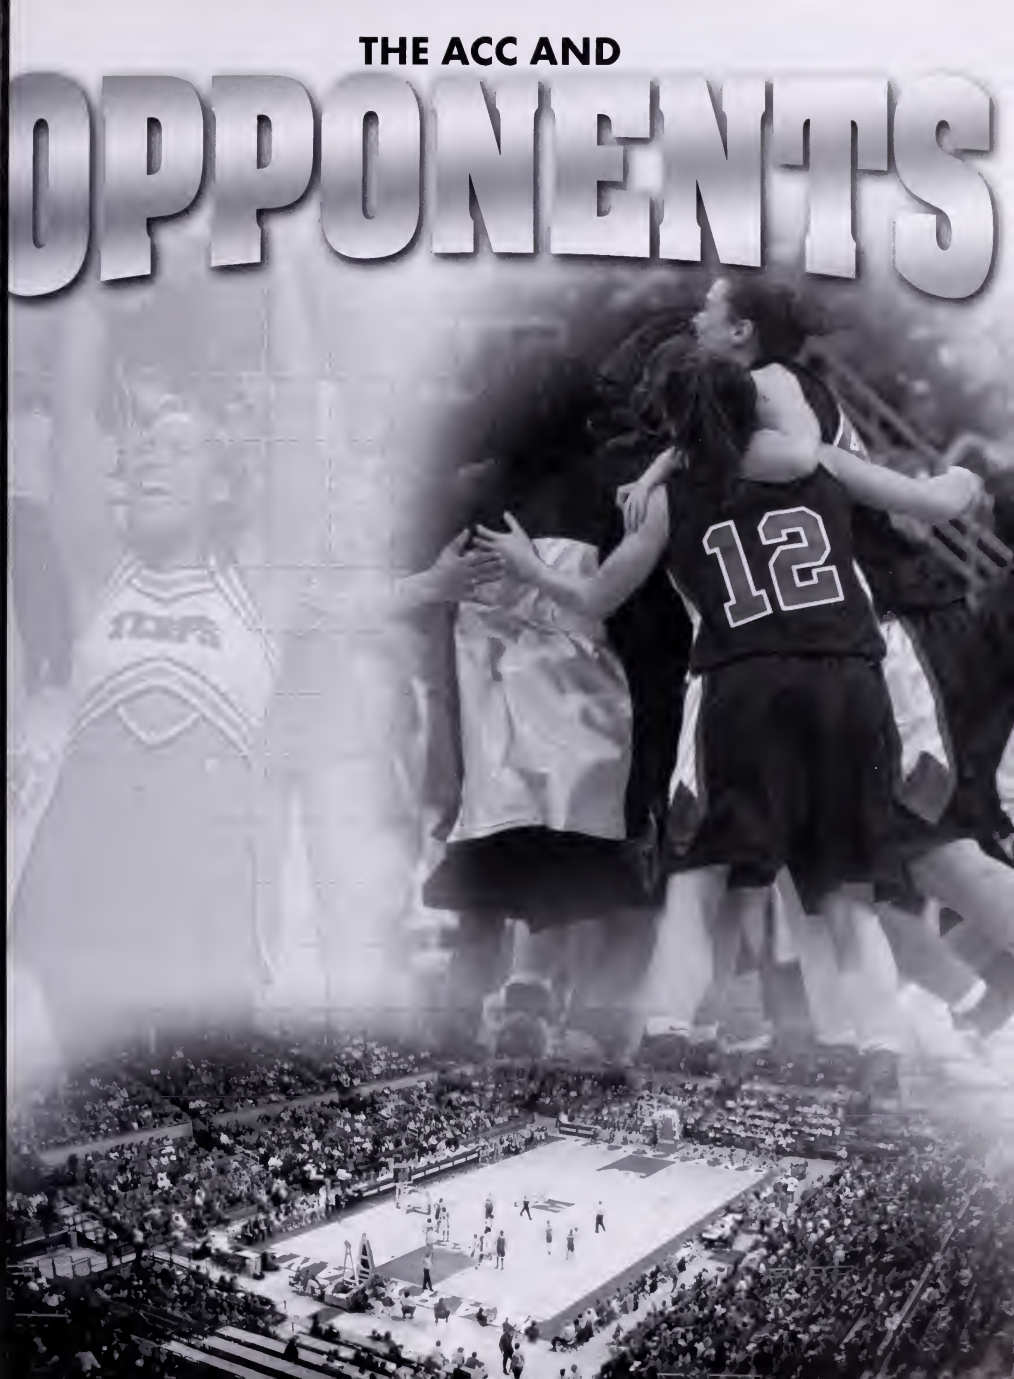
THE ACC AND OPPONENTS



ABOUT THE ACC

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 52nd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 91 national champion-ships, including 47 in women's competition and 44 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 116 times in men's competition and 57 in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With Maryland's victory over Indiana in the 2002 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured nine NCAA basketball championships, including five over the last 14 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1938. The 11 current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 315-164 for a sterling .647 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

A year ago, the ACC had two teams - Georgia Tech and Duke - in the Final Four for the second time in four years and fifth time overall. In the 20 years of the 64-team field, the ACC has produced 20 Final Four teams, an average of one per year and seven more than any other conference.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 203-96 (.679) NCAA record, including 56 "Sweet 16" appearances and 20 Final Four berths. Since 1985, 56 of the 102 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Since 1990, the ACC - with a 181-173 record - is the only conference with a winning record against ranked non-conference foes.

North Carolina and Duke lead all ACC schools with three NCAA championships each. NC State has two national titles to its credit and Maryland one. The Tar Heels captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982 and 1993 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by its regional and national television exposure as an all-time high 172 televised games involving ACC teams headline the league's 2004-05 schedule, including a record-setting 261 appearances. ACC teams are slated to make 132 appearances on national television networks and 79 of the league's 88 regular season conference games, including 36 on national television networks are scheduled to be televised.

This past year the ACC posted a 14-6 mark in NCAA Tournament play with the six losses by a total of 21 points. For the second time in league history, eight ACC teams took part in post-season play and six of the nine league teams were ranked in the final AP and coaches' polls. League teams were 107-24 (.816) against non-conference opponents, 13-12 versus ranked teams, including a 3-0 mark against No. 1 ranked teams. The ACC finished the 2003-04 season with the highest regular season RPI rating ever accorded a conference.

2003-04 in Review

The 2003-04 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and six individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 48 national team titles over the last 14 years.

The ACC's 2003-04 national champions were Wake Forest in field hockey, North Carolina in women's soccer and Virginia in women's lacrosse. Overall, 66 ACC teams took part in post-season play compiling a 101-66-4 (.596) record.

A total of 169 student-athletes from the ACC earned first, second or third-team All-America honors this past year. In addition, the ACC produced nine national Players of the Year, two national Rookies of the Year and three national Coaches of the Year recipients.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.

ALL-TIME COACHING HISTORY

Dottie McKnight

44-17, .721 · 4 Years (1971-75)

The first coach in the varsity era of women's basketball at the University of Maryland, McKnight directed a fledgling program into immediate success. In her four seasons at the Maryland helm, she never had a losing season. Her program was certainly not as established as it would become after her departure, but McKnight, in fact, boasts a better winning percentage than her successor, Chris Weller. McKnight laid claim to Maryland's first state championship in 1973, and won a second in 1975 with Weller as her assistant.

Chris Weller

499-286 .636 · 27 Years (1975-2002)

Chris Weller dominates Maryland women's basketball history. She guided her alma mater to a national championship game and to three Final Fours in total. Her Maryland teams enjoyed national rankings in 18 seasons and she engineered an unprecedented eight Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for nearly a month and drew to College Park a sellout crowd that still is the largest in history to watch an ACC women's basketball game. She was been a pioneer, architect and engineer to one of the most successful programs in the nation

Brenda Frese

28-31 .475 · 2 Years (2002-Present)

2002 AP Coach of the Year at Minnesota, Brenda Frese became only the third head coach in Maryland history on April 2, 2002. Frese came to College Park with a mission to rebuild and return Maryland to national prominence and in just two seasons is well on her way to accomplishing that mission. After a 10-18 season in her first year, the Terps went on to capture the most wins in eight seasons going 18-13 in year two. They tied for third in the ACC, the best showing since the 1996-97 campaign, doubling their conference win total from each of the last two seasons. Earning an NCAA Tournament berth, Maryland won its first NCAA Tournament game in 12 years. Frese's squad also drew a Comcast Center record 13,446 fans to its game vs. Duke on Feb. 22, 2004, the second-largest crowd in ACC women's basketball history.

GREAT TEAMS AND GREAT MOMENTS

Great Teams and Great Moments define Maryland women's basketball since it earned varsity distinction in the 1970s, rising quickly among the nation's elite and maintaining excellence and winning seasons nearly 30 years later. Greatness has been synonymous with Terrapin women's hoops. And synonymous with the Terrapins was been Chris Weller who began her Terrapin legacy as first a player in the mid-1960s, only to return later as an assistant, and eventually, head coach until her retirement in 2002.

The Weller Era was marked by NCAA Tournaments, collegiate milestones and perennial national rankings. Here is a chronological look at highlights – great moments – in Lady Terrapin history.

1972-73 STATE CHAMPIONS

Maryland wins its first state championship with a 46-43 victory over Morgan State.

1974-75 STATE CHAMPS/AIAW REGIONAL

The Terps wind their way to the second of three state titles, finishing 11-6 in the final season under Dottie McKnight. Perhaps most notable was the first-ever women's basketball game ever to be televised on Jan. 26 from Cole Field House. Maryland lost to defending national champion Immaculata.

1975-76 EAIAW REGIONAL

The 1975-76 season is best known as the beginning of the "Chris Weller Era." Maryland successfully defends its state championship and finishes fourth in the EAIAW Regionals in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Terps go 20-4 in Weller's first season with an 18-2 regular season marred only by a pair of one-point losses.

1976-77 EAIAW REGIONAL

Maryland receives its first national ranking on Nov. 25 with a No. 15 billing by the Associated Press. The Terps would finish in the No. 16 spot at season's end, but not after a 17-6 final record and fourth-place finish in the EAIAW Regionals. Maryland downs Virginia 79-67 on Feb. 11 to mark the beginning of the Terrapins' second-longest series in history. Jane Zivalich becomes the first Terp chosen for the U.S. Select Team.

1977-78 ACC CHAMPS/AIAW FINALS

The Terps register their best season to date, with numerous "firsts." Maryland captures the first of its now unprecedented eight ACC championships, earns a second-place finish in the EAIAW Tournament and finishes sixth in the final AP poll. The Terps beat UCLA and Olympian Ann Myers, 92-88 on Jan. 4 in a preview to the eventual national title bout. In the midst of an 11-game win streak to open the season and a 117-47 win over Duke, Maryland grabs a still-standing record 29 steals on Jan. 14. Maryland bests No. 2 NC State 89-82 on Feb. 11 to win the ACC title, and Tara Heiss establishes what is still the school mark for single game assists with 17 against Rutgers on Feb. 28. Weller's upset magic continues with a win over No. 1 ranked Tennessee on March 17 and a win over Southern Connecticut sends the Terps to the first-ever AIAW Final Four. Maryland downs Wayland Baptist on March 23 to win its first game in Final Four history. On March 25 a record crowd of 9,351 and national television audience on NBC Sports World watch host UCLA defeat the Terps 90-74 at Pauley Pavilion for the national championship.

1978-79 ACC CHAMPS/AIAW QUARTERFINALS

The Terps capture their second straight ACC title and reach the AIAW National Tournament for the second straight season. Maryland achieves its highest national ranking on Nov. 25 with a spot in the No. 2 position. The Terps down NC State in Raleigh on Feb. 10 to claim their second ACC banner. Maryland finishes 22-7 and ends the campaign with a No. 8 national ranking.

1979-80 AIAW QUARTERFINALS

Kris Kirchner logs her name in the Terp record book with a modest 15-point effort against Seton Hall on Feb. 29. Its significance is her contribution to 1,351 points to establish a Maryland career record. Maryland captures its first EAIAW Regional Tournament title with a 79-70 win over Rutgers on March 8. Jane Zivalich is named a Rhodes Scholar finalist and the Terps advance to the AIAW quarterfinals. Maryland finishes with a No. 6 national ranking and a 21-9 record for its third straight 20-win season. Tara Heiss is named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic squad.

1980-81 ACC CHAMPS/AIAW QUARTERFINALS

Maryland continues its prominence in the EAIAW Regional, advancing to the title game for the fourth straight season. A 64-63 win over emerging rival NC State on Feb. 14 helps the Terps capture the ACC crown for the third time in its first four years of existence, and finish with a No. 8 ranking in the Associated Press poll. A trip to the national tournament in Knoxville, Tenn., results in a win over Kentucky and a loss to the homestanding Volunteers.

1981-82 ACC CHAMPS/NCAA FINAL FOUR

"Four" becomes a magical number to Chris Weller and her crew as the Terps win 25 times to advance to their second Final Four – this time it is the first NCAA Final Four just four years after appearing in the national title game in the first-ever AIAW Final Four. The Terps capture their fourth ACC title with a 93-81 win over Clemson on Feb. 28. The Terps earn the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional and defeat Stanford 82-48 in Cole Field House to mark the campus' first NCAA Tournament game on March 14. The Terps trek west for a win over Missouri on March 19, and Drake two days later to earn a trip to their second Final Four. Cheyney State upends Maryland 76-66 to end the season on March 26, but not without a No. 3 billing in the final AP poll marking the highest finish in Maryland history.

1982-83 ACC CHAMPS/NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN

Maryland tops Rutgers 83-66 on Jan. 26 to run its school record win streak to 16 games to open the season. NC State knocks the Terps from the ranks of unbeaten on Jan. 29, though only five weeks later the Terrapins earn revenge by downing the Wolfpack 84-81 for their fifth ACC crown on March 6. Maryland earns the No. 3 seed in the East Region and defeats Central Michigan on March 19 in an opening-round game. Maryland eventually falls to Old Dominion in the regional semifinal and ends the year with a No. 7 national ranking. The Terps conclude the season as the NCAA leaders in field goal percentage statistics, behind the strength of Kodak All-American Jasmina Perazic – Maryland's first to be so honored.

1983-84 NCAA FIRST ROUND

The Terps fail to win 20 games for the first time in three seasons, but record at least 19 for the seventh straight year. Maryland is ranked 17th in the final AP poll and earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region.

1984-85

Maryland enters the 1984-85 season having been ranked in the AP Top 20 for 128 consecutive weeks — the most by any team in the nation. Weller spends her summer months as an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup team.

1985-86 ACC CHAMPS/NCAA FIRST ROUND

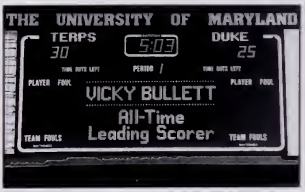
Success and championships return after just a one-year hiatus. The Terps enter the ACC Tournament as an underdog, yet win their sixth title, defeating NC State, Virginia and North Carolina. Deanna Tate is named MVP of the tournament after downing the Tar Heels 90-74 on March 3. Maryland accepts a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region, and suffers an opening round loss to Ohio State.

1986-87

The Terps exit the ACC Tournament in a semifinal loss to Virginia. It is only the second season in the last 10 that Maryland has failed to reach a national tournament.

1987-88 ACC CHAMPS/NCAA ELITE EIGHT

And back come the Terps again. Not to be denied an ACC title for more than a season at a time, Maryland goes 26-6 overall and never loses in 13 home contests. The Terps take a four-game win streak into the ACC Tournament where they down Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Virginia, and claim a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Deanna Tate wins her second straight tourney MVP award as the Terrapins hold off the Cavaliers, 76-70 on March 7 for their seventh conference crown. They run their streak to nine games with an 81-66 victory over Ohio State in the regional semifinal on March 24. The Terps fall to Auburn in a bid for a third Final Four, but finish 26-6 and return to national prominence. Maryland finishes eighth in the final poll released by USA Today, and ninth by AP. Junior Vicky Bullett breaks Maryland's all-time scoring and rebounding marks with still a year to play, and stars for the U.S. Olympic team during August 1988. She wins a gold medal in the Summer Games while averaging 4.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in five games.

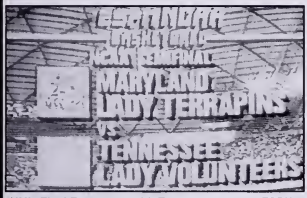


Bullett became the all-time leading scorer in 1988.

2004 NCAA SECOND ROUND

1988-89 ACC CHAMPS/NCAA FINAL FOUR

Maryland's most successful season? Perhaps. Vicky Bullett and Deanna Tate both earn Kodak All-America honors as the Terps embark on an all-time best 29-3 record. Included in the mark was another perfect home record, 12-0, which ran Maryland's Cole Field House win streak to 27. On March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia 89-66 to win its 17th consecutive game, a new school record. The Terps won four more games to establish the existing school mark of 21 straight victories. The 18th win of the streak, March 6 against NC State, secures an eighth ACC title. Bullett is named the league's player of the year as Maryland enters the NCAA West Region as the No. 1 seed. Maryland notches win 19 of the streak on March 18 against Bowling Green with a 73-68 opening round win at Cole Field House. The streak grows to 21 with a 79-71 win over Texas on its home floor on March 25, earning the Terps a trip to their third Final Four. On ESPN in a national semifinal on March 31, Maryland watches its season and its streak wind to a close with a 77-65 loss to Tennessee.



UM's Final Four game with Tennessee was on ESPN.

1989-90 NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN

Maryland reaches its third straight NCAA Tournament with a 19-11 record. Maryland wins its first home game against George Mason on Nov. 29 to run its record home court win streak to 28 games before falling on Dec. 6 to defending national champ Tennessee. Dafne Lee helps the Terps to an 85-84 overtime win over Wake Forest to begin a four-game win streak heading into the ACC Tournament. In the process, she scores 39 points against the Deamon Deacons to tie the school record. On Feb. 16, Maryland earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region and downs Appalachian State 100-71 for its final win on March 14 at Cole Field House.

1990-91 NCAA FIRST ROUND

Maryland wins five straight games at mid-season to help in building a 17-13 mark and earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Maryland advances to the ACC semifinals with a 91-73 win over Georgia Tech.

1991-92 NCAA ELITE EIGHT

One of the Terps' most exciting seasons saw Maryland finish 25-6 in 1991-92, including the first No. 1 ranking in school history and a Cole Field House sellout crowd of 14,500 to watch No. 1 Maryland and No. 2 Virginia. Prior to that historic, No. 3 Maryland downs top-ranked Virginia 67-65 in Charlottesville on Jan. 15 to mark the second time in history that the Terps had beaten a No. 1 team. The win catapults the Terps to their first-ever No. 1 ranking on Jan. 21, a post they would hold for four weeks. Maryland wins its first five games to defend the ranking and runs its win streak to 11 games overall to set up a Virginia rematch on Feb. 11 at Cole Field House. The Cole sellout still is the largest ACC crowd in history and one of the largest in collegiate women's history. Maryland exits the ACC Tournament after an opening round upset by Georgia Tech, and bows to Western Kentucky in the Mideast Regional finals. The Terps end the season ranked eighth in both national polls, and Chris Weller is a consensus pick as national coach of the year.

1992-93 NCAA FIRST ROUND

Jessie Hicks scores 20 points to lead the Terrapins past No. 1 Tennessee, Dec. 30 at Cole Field House. It is Maryland's third win ever against a top-ranked foe, and coupled with a Jan. 2 victory over No. 10 Purdue, propels the Terps to a No. 3 ranking of its own. Maryland falls to Virginia, 106-103, in a memorable triple-overtime championship game of the ACC Tournament on March 8, but earns a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. The Terps are upset in an opening round game at Cole Field House, 86-82, by Southwest Missouri State. Maryland ends the campaign 22-8, and ranked 11th by the Associated Press and 18th by USA Today.

1993-94

The Terps finish 15-13 while ranking as high as No. 16 during the year. Maryland falls to Virginia in the ACC Tournament semifinals and gets its bubble burst when it fails to earn an NCAA bid for the first time in seven seasons.

1994-95

A promising rookie class of recruits is rated as high as fourth-best in the country, though Maryland finishes 11-18 on the season. Maryland defeats NC State 83-80 at Cole Field House for Chris Weller's 400th career victory on Jan. 28.

1995-96

Maryland upends No. 14 Duke at Cole Field House on Feb. 5, and No. 18 Clemson at Cole a week later on Feb. 10. The Terps finish 13-14, but again advance to the ACC semifinals.

1996-97

In her 22nd season as coach, Chris Weller readies the troops for another run at the NCAA Tournament. Maryland wins a pair of early-season tournaments and leads the nation in scoring defense through much of January. The Terps defeat No. 14 Duke 68-64 on Jan. 12, and drop No. 15 NC State by a 54-51 count on Jan. 18. The Terps defeat No. 21 Clemson on the road on Feb. 22 to earn a No. 3 seed in the ACC Tournament, but fall in a first-round game to Duke, 60-52 in overtime. The Terrapins gain an at-large NCAA bid in the Midwest Region.

1997-98 NCAA FIRST ROUND

Facing a schedule ranked the third-strongest in the nation, Maryland leads the ACC in scoring defense and ranked 29th nationally. Maryland wins seven straight early games. Highlights include a pair of wins over Top 20 foes: No. 7 North Carolina on Jan. 18 and later No. 9 NC State in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. Tiffany Brown nets a then-school record seven 3-pointers in the win over North Carolina before a national TV audience on ESPN2.

1998-99

A young Terrapin squad overcomes the absence of key seniors to finish seventh in the ACC and capture its third consecutive title in the Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29.

1999-2000

Maryland returns to the national scene as the Terps claim a berth in the 2000 Women's National Invitational Tournament. The Terps advanced all the way to the tournament's quarterfinals before falling to finalist Florida. During the regular season, the Terps recorded a pair of upset victories over ranked teams, defeating No. 12 Duke on Feb. 3 and No. 16 Virginia on Feb. 24. The win over Duke ended the Blue Devils' 20-game home ACC win streak. Tiffany Brown became Maryland's most prolific 3-point shooter, setting the career records for treys made and attempted. She also set the single-game mark with eight at Clemson on Jan. 6. Marché Strickland made five consecutive 3-pointers in a 65-second span against Georgia Tech on Jan. 23. Because of her accomplishment, Strickland garned national media recognition.

2000-01 NCAA FIRST ROUND

The 2000-01 season marks the program's 17th national tournament appearance. The Terps tops then-No. 18 Clemson 85-73 in overtime in Cole Field House and sweeps the season series at Clemson when they are ranked 17th with a 68-62 victory. No. 22 NC State falls to the Terps 57-56 on its home court, and then suffers the 75-54 loss at Cole Field House when they are No. 17. On the doorstep of a Top 25 ranking all season, Maryland loses to Colorado State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament after receiving its first NCAA bid since 1997. Terp juniors Deedee Warley and Marché Strickland score their 1,000th point, Warley in the upset at Clemson and Strickland at Duke on Feb. 15.

2001-02

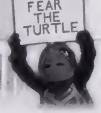
A distinctive era comes to a close in the 2001-02 season, as 27-year head coach Chris Weller (499-286, .636) says goodbye to Maryland and Cole Field House closes its doors as the home of Terrapin women's basketball. On Feb. 21, with a 66-54 loss to NC State, the Terrapins celebrate their 28 years of memorable moments and championship history in Cole Field House. Weller officially announces her retirement from Maryland on March 5 after celebrating the ACC Tournament's 25th anniversary and the Terps' league-leading eight titles.

2002-03

A new era begins as Maryland women's basketball moves to its new home at Comcast Center with a new mentor at the helm in Brenda Frese. The Terps will forever hold the distinction of playing the first-ever basketball game, men's or women's, at the new facility hosting Loyola on Nov. 22, a game which Maryland won, 80-72. Renneika Razor scores the first basket en route to the Terps victory. Maryland breaks 100 points for the first time since 1993, when they downed UMES, 102-31, on Dec. 1. In Maryland's 69-58 loss at Virginia on Jan. 19, Razor becomes the 20th Terp in school history to break the 1,000-point barrier, ending her career ranked 16th all-time amassing 1,163 points. A crowd of 5,078 are in attendance for Maryland's thrilling 74-72 win over NC State on Feb. 1. It was the largest crowd since 1996 when No. 9 Virginia came to town. Razor ends her career with second team All-ACC honors, the highest honor given to a Terp since 1998.

2003-04 NCAA SECOND ROUND

In what was supposed to be another rebuilding year, the Terps win the most games since the 1996-97 campaign and finish in a tie for third place in the ACC, the best showing since that same year. Maryland equals its conference win total from the previous two years, combined, earning an NCAA Tournament berth for the first time in three years. Led by a couple of high school All-Americans, Shay Doron opens the season making an NCAA record-tying 23 free throws vs. Coppin State on Nov. 21. She goes on to break the school's single-season mark. A Comcast Center record 13,446 come out for the home regular-season finale vs. No. 4 Duke on Feb. 22 which is televised on ESPN2. The record is also the second-largest crowd for a women's basketball game in ACC history. After a 62-47 win over Florida State on March 6, the Terps advance to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament to face the Blue Devils and fall short of the upset, 70-63, on March 7. The Terps are selected the 12th seed in the West Region and go on to win their first NCAA tourney game in 12 years when they upset Miami (Fla.), 86-85, on March 21. Three Terps earn ACC postseason honors. Doron leads the way with third team nods becoming the first rookie in school history to earn All-ACC honors. Kalika France also becomes the first freshman Terp to be named Honorable Mention All-ACC while Delvona Oliver earns the recognition for the first time in her career. Doron (first team) and Oliver (second team) are also selected to the ACC All-Tournament team. By year's end, Doron and France lead the team in scoring, the first time a pair of Terp rookies has done so.



COLE FIELD HOUSE

Home of Maryland Women's Basketball (1975-2002)

One of college basketball's finest venues, Cole Field House retired as the home of the Maryland Terrapin basketball teams in 2002.

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth - from the late 1950's to the late 1970's – there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. Despite facing cosmetic renewal, Cole's charisma was never tampered with. There was not a bad seat on December 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in the men's game against Virginia, and was equalling as thunderous when it closed its doors as the men's team defeated Virginia on March 3, 2002. Cole Field House will always be home to countless memories, buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Many great women's basketball teams and great players have played at Cole Field House. It ranks among the top 50 all-time Best Women's Basketball Home Courts, as the Terps compiled a 288-95 mark (75.2 percent) from 1973-2002, which ranks among the top 50 overall.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there were refinements. Additions were made such as an increase in seating capacity to 14,500, scoreboards that not only told the fan what the score was, but also how loud they were cheering, and a new floor design.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 men's basketball Final Four were held there. In 1990, the first and second rounds of the eastern regionals were in Cole Field House. The NCAA wrestling championships were held at Cole in 1960, 1972, 1978, 1987, and 1990, and the NCAA women's volleyball championship took place there in 1990. Cole Field House also served as the home to most of the athletic department offices.

No. 1 ranked Maryland drew an ACC record 14,500 to its game against No. 2 Virginia on Feb. 12, 1992.

COMCAST CENTER

Maryland's new home for Terrapin Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002, and has already provided two seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball, and serves as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

Comcast Center houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's near-700 student-athletes on 25 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams, and Nextel Heritage Hall multi-purpose room is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pre-game restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride. Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

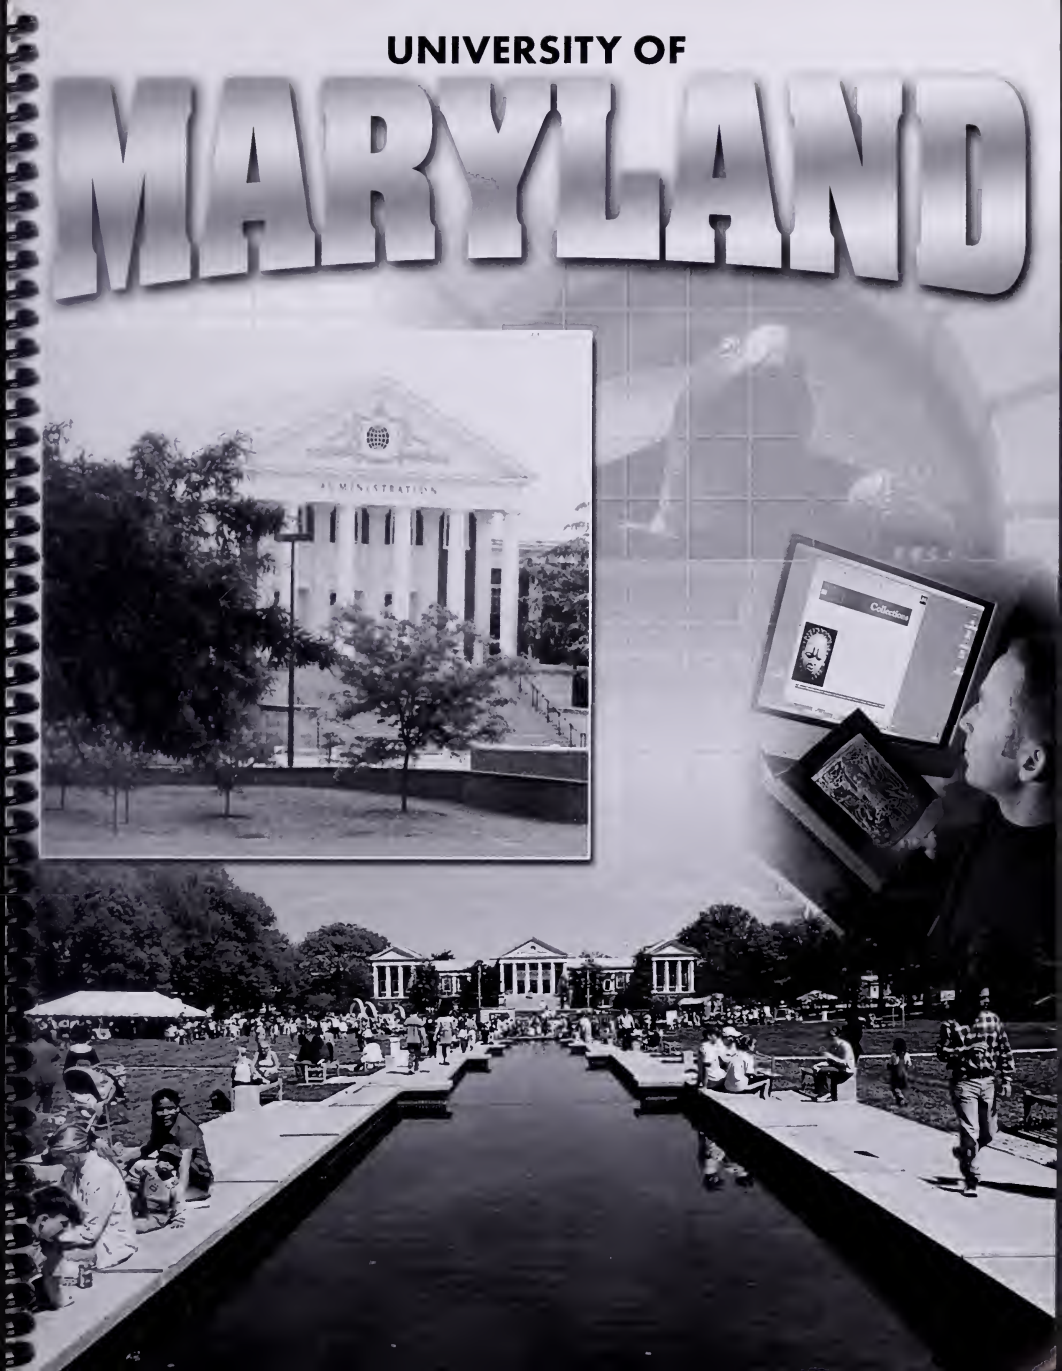
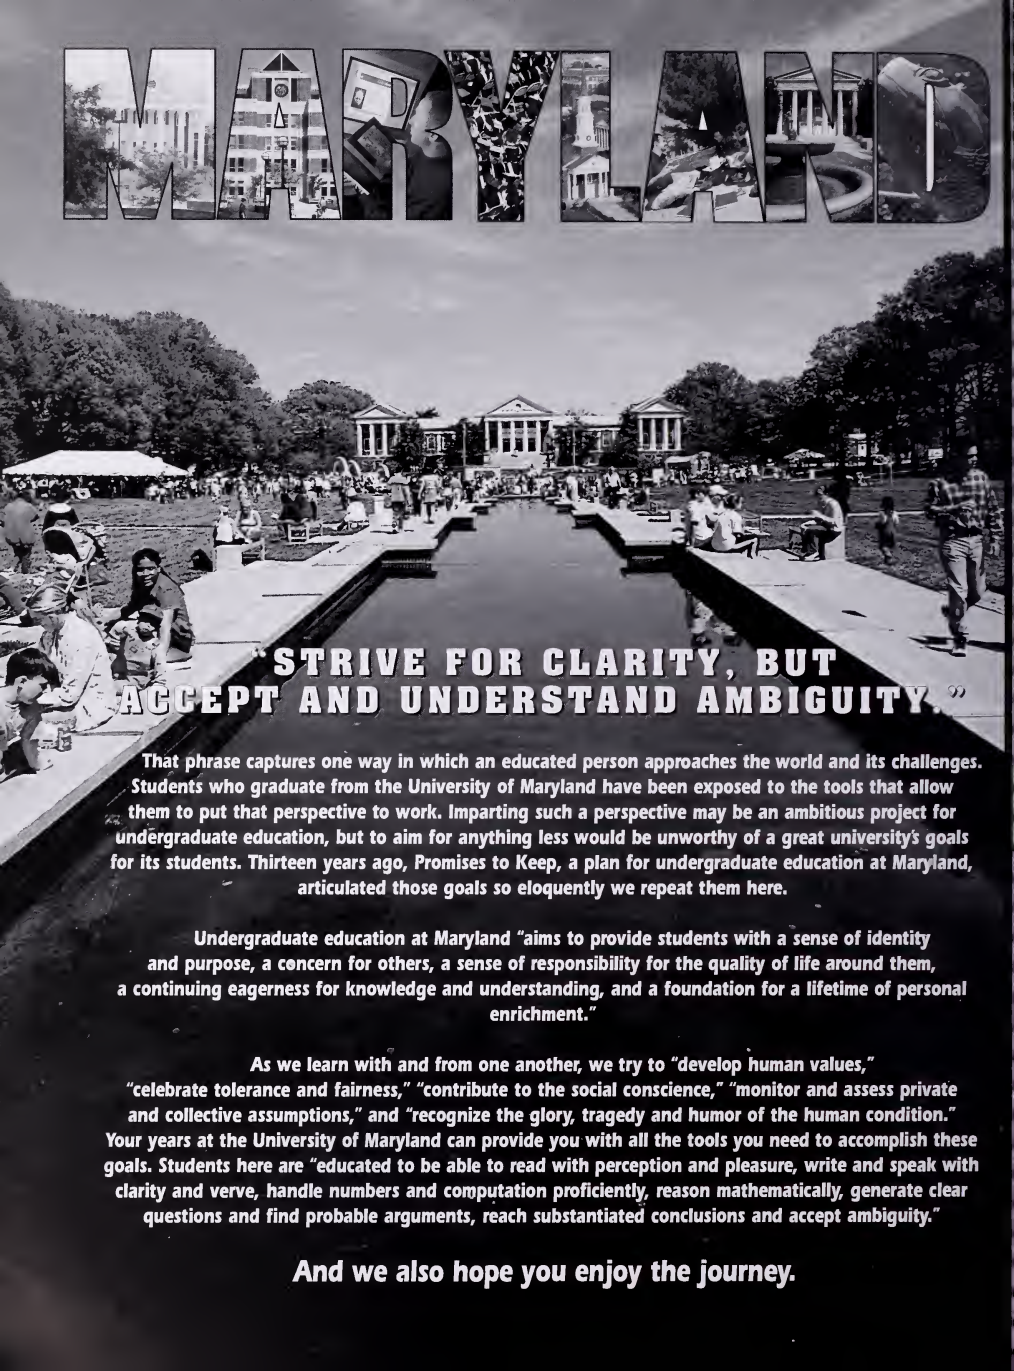
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND





"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

The Campus

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 67 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2004 enrollment was 25,140 undergraduate and 9,793 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library and White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their unique interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high-technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The university opened the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center in 2002, with its six state-of-the art performance halls, which has quickly become a center of cultural programming in the Washington metropolitan area. The university also boasts four art galleries and a broad range of public art throughout the beautiful campus. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

Did You Know?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 67 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 16 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 8 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.

In the only undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report-business and engineering–both the Robert H. Smith School of Business (No. 18) and A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 24) were ranked among the top 25. The university also ranked in the top 25 for its learning communities (3rd), first-year experience (12th) and service learning programs (24th).

An economic impact study conducted by the economists with the Jacob France Center, an applied economics analysis center at the University of Baltimore, concluded that the University of Maryland generates $5.93 of economic activity for every dollar appropriated by the General Assembly, for a total statewide effect of nearly $1.8 billion.

Nobel Laureate William Phillips joined the university's physics faculty and is establishing a world-class atomic, molecular and optical physics group on campus. The Philip Merrill College of Journalism now has five Pulitzer Prize winners on its faculty. A sixth faculty member, Eugene Roberts, directed the Philadelphia Inquirer to multiple Pulitzer's as managing editor.

MORE, BETTER STUDENTS GO TO MARYLAND

There is no place better to be than the University of Maryland. As university President C.D. Mote Jr. noted in a recent Baltimore Sun front-page story, "This place is clearly on a tear."

With top-ranked academic programs (67 in the top 25, according to U.S. News and World Report), an honors program that competes with the Ivy League for top students, a prize-winning faculty (topped by a Nobel and six Pulitzers, among others), a highly diverse population, and a beautiful 1,580-acre campus located between the cultural and population centers of Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's little wonder that more of Maryland's top high school graduates choose the University of Maryland over all other Maryland colleges, public and private, combined.

In the latest U.S. News and World Report rankings, Maryland was 18th nationally among all public universities. The colleges of engineering, education, computer, mathematical and physical sciences, and information sciences are all ranked in the top 25 nationally. So are many of the individual programs in those schools and others, including criminology, journalism, public relations, counseling and others. The Robert H. Smith School of Business has been ranked among the top business schools in the world by the Wall Street Journal and the Financial Times of London.

More than 40 percent of all entering freshmen at Maryland are now enrolled in high-achieving programs like the Honors Program, Honors Humanities, College Park Scholars, Gemstone and a growing roster of living-learning communities where students with common interests in such topics as civil society and entrepreneurship can live and study together. With their wide variety of subject areas and top faculty from throughout the university, these programs compete for students with the best public and private universities in the country.

Supporting the research needs of students and faculty are some of the country's best research facilities. In 1994, the largest, most technically advanced research archives in the world — National Archives II — moved to College Park. In addition, just outside of College Park are the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution and the National Libraries of Agriculture and Medicine, among others. The university itself has the most comprehensive library system in the area.

2004 NCAA SECOND ROUND

DR. C.D. MOTE JR.

University President • Sixth Year at Maryland
California '51

As the 19th president of the University of Maryland, C. D. "Dan" Mote Jr. has presided since 1998 over a university that is claiming a well-earned position in the top echelon of research universities in the nation. An internationally-respected researcher and member of the National Academy of Engineenng, Dr. Mote is Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineenng. He serves on the Technology Council of Maryland, is co-chair of the Potomac Conference of the Greater Washington Board of Trade and heads its Technology Transfer Committee.

Under President Mote's leadership, Maryland has received national and international notice for innovative undergraduate education opportunities, high-impact research and academic programs, outstanding performing arts, and athletes and athletic teams competitive with the best in the nation.

"The future of the state depends on this university," says Mote. "It is the State of Maryland's most important asset." As president, Dan Mote has been determined to make that asset even greater by nourishing a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, strengthening the university's connections with its various stakeholders, building partnerships with state and national corporations and federal agencies and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere. The university's progress can be seen in all areas, from its nationally-ranked programs to its success in building external partnerships to its state-of-the-art facilities.

Quality Programs

Over the past decade, the quality of Maryland's programs and reputation has climbed steadily. In 2003, the University of Maryland moved up to 17th place among public universities in U.S. News & World Report rankings, up from 30th in 1998. We currently have 44 graduate and undergraduate programs and units ranked in the top 15 by U.S. News & World Report, up from 5 in 1995.

While our academic successes have spread across the board, the university has emerged as a true powerhouse in business, computer science, earth sciences, engineering, environmental policy, education and journalism. Maryland is one of only 10 public and private universities that have their programs in computer science, mathematics, physics, and engineenng each ranked in the top 20. Our College of Education is ranked in the top 20 nationally and 5 of its programs are in the top 10.

Faculty Stature

Dr. Mote believes a university's quality is built by its faculty, and under his leadership, Maryland continues to attract the best faculty available. The university recruited a Nobel Laureate in Physics in 2001 and three more Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already on the faculty). More than 30 of our faculty are members of the national academies, the highest professional recognition attainable.

This past year alone, the university was among the top institutions in the nation in the number of awards flowing to our faculty: three faculty members were elected to the National Academy of Engineering; three were elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences; 10 received National Science Foundation Early Career Awards, and 6 received National Endowment for the Humanities Fellowships, more than any other institution in the nation.

Among our faculty members are the lead scientist on NASA's Project Deep Impact, which will shoot a rocket into the heart of a comet; one of the most sought-after experts on the Middle-East; the writer and two-time Emmy winner of the script for the Discovery Channel's "Walking with the Cavemen"; and the brilliant young geneticist whose research into the evolution of DNA from early Africa earned her a place among "Popular Scientist's Brilliant Ten," its list of the top ten up and coming scientists in the nation.

Talented Students

Over the past 10 years, it has become a cliché to announce that each year's new freshman class is the most talented ever. The average GPA of entering students in fall 2003 was 3.9.

Not surprisingly, the number of students enrolling in honors and other special programs has also skyrocketed in recent years. Our extremely popular living-learning programs, which bring together students with similar academic interests in a r esidential setting, were ranked 3rd in the country in the latest U.S. News & World Report. In the last academic year, over 6,000 students enrolled in such enriched curricula programs as Gemstone, College Park Scholars, and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the Schools of Engineering and Business and widely hailed as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

Business Partnerships

The university's reputation for excellence and entrepreneurship attracts new partners to the state. A key drawing card to bring major players into the state is the University of Maryland Enterprise Campus,"M Square," a 128-acre research park located near the College Park Metro. Tenants include a new global weather prediction center for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and the headquarters of the Center for the Advanced Study of Languages, a joint partnership between the University and the Department of Defense.

A future tenant with extraordinary promise for economic enrichment is China, which is moving rapidly to become engaged in the global economy and seeking links to Western industry. The Ministry of Science and Technology of the People's Republic of China has established its first overseas research park in Maryland in partnership with the University. The Ministry sees this partnership as an opportunity to introduce China's emerging entrepreneurs to Western business practices and establish contacts with the state's businesses and to serve as a base for China's technology entrée to the U.S.

In order to fulfill its role as the state's most important asset, President Mote has emphasized that the university must be engaged with the business community in substantial and meaningful ways. In recent years, Maryland has assisted hundreds of Maryland businesses through its Technology Extension Program and Maryland Industrial Partnerships program, and incubated some of the state's most successful biotech firms, including Martek and Digene, in its Technology Advancement Program.

World-Class Facilities

During Mote's second year in office, the university began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities.

Highlights of the construction activity on the campus include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center; new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering; new residence halls; extensive renovations to the Adele Stamp Student Union; and new parking structures.

President Mote also led the development of a new campus facilities master plan that focused on first class facilities and stresses environmental stewardship. In April 2003, the university was recognized by the Environmental Protection Agency and the National Wildlife Foundation for environmental achievements, including the environmentally friendly master plan and the creation of a cogeneration power system that will significantly reduce energy consumption.

DEBORAH A. YOW

Athletics Director • 11th Year at Maryland

Deborah A. Yow is in the 11th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought about continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 10 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships and graduated its student athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics four years ago is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She was singled out by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the leading administrators in the U.S. and she received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She has served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television for 2003 through 2004. The committee, comprised of the ACC's athletics directors, is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the recent, very successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multiyear ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities. Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics." She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all 10 of the department's annual budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $43 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 10 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the dramatic upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team has appeared in the last 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, one of only five programs to do so.
- Women's basketball also won its way to the NCAA Tournament in 2004, advancing to the Second Round.

- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 10 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Reflecting on the status of the Terrapin men's basketball program, Maryland's Director of Athletics points out, "Our men's basketball team has become one of America's premier collegiate programs under the leadership of Coach Gary Williams and his staff. We are one of only five institutions to advance to the NCAA postseason tournament in each of the last 11 years, and the only team in the ACC to do so."

Summing up the entire athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls "the three A's of the University —Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

Career Networking Night

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume- writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs Commitment Statements

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

Academic Support For Returning Athletes Program

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

Craig Bennett, M.D.

Head Team Physician/ Orthopaedic Surgeon First Year

Craig H. Bennett, M.D., begins his first season as the head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for Maryland. Dr. Bennett is the Chief of Orthopaedic Sports Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine and has also served as the head orthopaedic surgeon for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. Prior to his arrival at Maryland, Dr. Bennett was at the University of Pittsburgh where he served as an assistant professor of orthopaedics, as a team physician for Pittsburgh's athletic department and as the associate team physician for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Dr. Bennett graduated with honors from Brown University in 1985. He earned his medical degree from the University of California at San Francisco and completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. He then completed a sports medicine-knee and shoulder fellowship at the University of Pittsburgh and subsequently stayed on staff at Pittsburgh for five years. While at Pittsburgh, he also served as the team physician for the men's basketball team.

Dr. Bennett was selected to the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons Leadership Fellows Program in 2003-04 and Towson University honored him as their African-American Scholar of the Year in 2004. He is a board certified member of the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and a member of the NFL Team Physicians Association.

Dr. Sacared Bodison, Dr. Stephen Fahey and Dr. Yulanda Swindell are three full-time University Health Center physicians who specialize in sports medicine. Dr. Bodison is the director at the Health Center and has been involved with the care of student-athletes since 1982 and is a member of the Maryland Athletic Council. Dr. Fahey is an emergency physician who is in his 18th year working with the Terrapins. All three doctors are available to treat student-athletes daily on an as-needed basis in the Health Center. In addition, Dr. Yulanda Swindell is in her first year at Maryland.

Yvette Rooks, M.D.

Primary Care Physician Sixth Year

Dr. Yvette Rooks is in her sixth year as a primary care physician for Maryland's program. Dr. Rooks graduated from the Update Medical School/Health Science Center in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993. She completed her residency in family medicine and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Maryland, Baltimore. She currently is an assistant professor in the Department of Family Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. Dr. Rooks also serves as a team physician at Coppin State.

She graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Albany where she was a four-year starter on the volleyball team.

Michael Yorio, M.D.

Assistant Team Physician Sixth Year

Michael Yorio, M.D., an internist with specialized training in sports medicine, is the assistant team physician for Maryland. STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

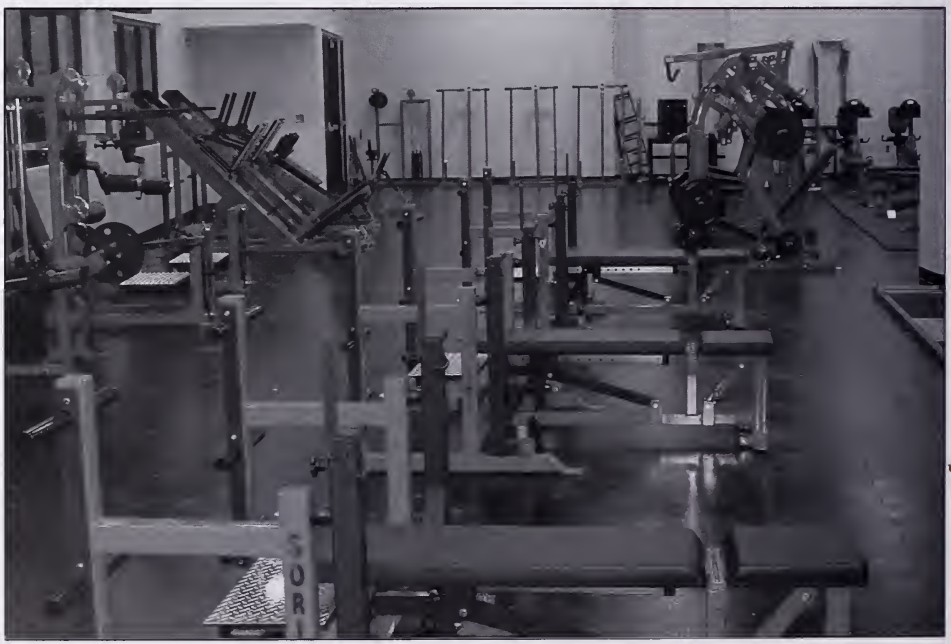
In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Corliss White, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for women's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Corliss White

White's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. She believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Brenda Frese's trademark. White trains the team so that it will be able to play up to Frese's style.

The members of the women's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the women's basketball office and the team's locker room in Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sq. foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained before, during and after the season.

The Terps' new state-of-the-art weight room at Comcast Center.



TERRAPIN CLUB

Championships Begin With Scholarships

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interesting in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events
- Access your own personal member page within the Terrapin Club web site, to review your account

Your donation is a vital part of our strategic plan. At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $7 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

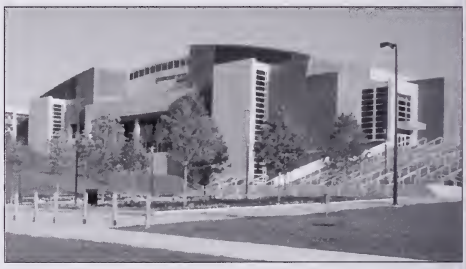
The Gossett Football Team House campaign began in 2002 as an effort to provide Maryland Football with the necessary tools to compete annually for conference and national championships. Funds raised through this vital campaign have helped make significant improvements to the football facilities and fields. Three main areas were either refurbished or newly constructed, adding over 20,000 square feet to the team house. The Foxman Family Academic Support Unit was completed in the fall of 2002 with over 35 computer work stations, as well as private tutoring and counseling areas and large group study areas. The Erik B. Young and Family Dining Hall was completed in winter 2004. The Young Dining Hall serves as the training table for football and other teams, and provides invaluable space for hosting recruits and their families. The Lowell and Harriet Glazer Family Auditorium and the new entrance and the Howard and Stanley Bender Lobby are scheduled for completion by fall 2004. The Glazer Auditorium will have space sufficient for the entire football team and coaching staff to meet together as a group to prepare for competition. The new entrance and the Bender Lobby, as well as the Hall of Fame area, will present Maryland Football and its past glories in a truly exceptional way.

The renovations to the Gossett Football Team House are making a positive and strong impression to prospective players, the team, alumni and visitors about the seriousness we place on football at Maryland. These continuing facility upgrades are crucial in order to compete with the top colleges and universities in the country for the best student-athletes, as well as making Maryland Football a source of pride for alumni and fans alike.

You can have your name permanently associated with the excitement of Maryland Football by making a gift to the Gossett Football Team House campaign. Naming opportunities exist for gifts beginning at $2,000 for chairs in the Glazer Auditorium, $5,000 for player lockers in the team locker room and beginning at $25,000 for other rooms and areas in the team house. Gifts to the Gossett Football Team House campaign are managed by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation.

To obtain information on the Gossett Football Team House campaign or other Athletics fund raising opportunities, contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll free at (800) 653-7667, or by email at terrapinclub@umd.edu.



THE M CLUB

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

Credentials

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office. Issuance of credentials may be based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.

2. Daily newspapers regularly covering the University of Maryland, the current-game opponent or another Atlantic Coast Conference school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.

3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.

4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications or student electronic media outlets with daily sports reports.

5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

Other Guidelines

• Season media credentials are issued to those outlets which cover Maryland Athletics on a regular basis. They do not guarantee working space in media work areas.

• With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters covering the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.

• Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.

• Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, no credentials will be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.

• The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."

• Credentials are issued to web sites that are affiliated with national or regional media organizations, e.g. USA Today.com, ESPN.com, CBS SportsLine, etc., for web sites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools or non-conference opponents, or for the Atlantic Coast Conference office.

• Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under their traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for online staff.

• All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable, and no credentials will be issued to those under the age of 18.

Credential Requests

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors on official letterhead no later than five days prior to an event. They should be sent to the Athletic Media Relations Office, University of Maryland, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094. No credential requests will be accepted via e-mail or by phone.

Game Day Press Parking

Parking is located to the north of Comcast Center – in lots P1 and P2. Media parking is best accessed from the University Drive (Rt. 193) entrance to campus at Paint Branch Drive. Access to the media parking area is parking pass only, and is available on a limited basis.

For lots P1 and P2, after entering campus on Paint Branch Drive, take the first right at Terrapin Trail, and proceed approximately 100 yards to the media parking area on the right.

Photography Regulations

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for more crowded games. Photographer and videographer positions are at the complete and absolute discretion of the basketball game officials and the Maryland media relations office at all times, without exception.

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in photography areas. Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas.

Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made through the media relations office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Press Seating

Press seating is located on the basketball floor in the northeast corner of the arena. The area is manned by members of the Media Relations Office throughout the game. The Media Relations staff desires to help the media be as comfortable as possible during each game.

Photographers

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in the photography areas on the basketball court. Only photographers on assignment, along with members of working television media, are given photo passes. Admission to the court and the photo boxes is by photo pass only. Photographers, both still and electronic, must shoot from the baselines at the northwest (Maryland bench end/directly in front of press seating) and southeast (visiting bench) corners of the court. Photographer's floor access is governed by Atlantic Coast Conference policy. Please note that only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) will have access to the photography areas. Photographers are also welcome to shoot from the photo deck on the west side of Comcast Center. Access to the photo deck is from the concourse level opposite the team benches. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the Media Relations Office AT ALL TIMES. Failure to comply with their directions will result in expulsion from the arena.

In-Season Interview Policies

All Maryland players and head coach Brenda Frese will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. ALL INTERVIEW REQUESTS must be made through the Media Relations Office, contacting Natalia Ciccone. Please give a minimum of 24 hours notice. Player's individual phone numbers will not be given to the media and game day interviews will not be granted until the end of a game.

The Media Relations Office is located on the second level of Comcast Center in room 2725. The phone number is (301) 314-7064 and the FAX number is (301) 314-9094.
